

JAPANESE AND RUSSIANS GETTING CLOSER TOGETHER

ENVOYS ARE NOW GETTING AT THE PEACE ARTICLES.

Each Proposition Is Being Taken Up Separately and Discussed by the Representatives.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 14.—The sitting of the peace conference was resumed this morning under ideal weather conditions. The excessive heat wave which has almost driven the foreigners to distraction during the first days of the conference, was broken by yesterday's storm and after a good night's rest, the plenipotentiaries and the members of their entourage appeared this morning bright and cheerful. The change in the weather affected their tempers and as they looked out across the rippling bay, dotted with green islands and shining white yachts, the usual exclamation was "how charming."

IN FROCK COATS.
Baron Komura and M. Takahira both appeared in frock coats. They entered their motor cars shortly after, smiling and bowing to the hotel guests. Then M. Witte and Baron Rosen came out of the entrance to the annex, where the Russian headquarters are located. There also a little crowd collected. So cool was it that M. Witte wore a light overcoat. Both smilingly greeted the assemblage of guests which was awaiting them.

The secretaries of the respective missions had left a few minutes before the principals, the Japanese in a tatty-ho, the Russians in a launch. The conference began at 9:50, and the discussion being resumed on the conditions relating to the status of

RECKLESS METHODS.
Reckless methods characterize the Japanese system in the peace negotiations as in their military and naval operations.

Change in Chief May be Made This Afternoon.
The Police and Fire Commissioners are holding an executive session this afternoon.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE MATTER OF DEPOSING CHIEF HODGKINS AS CHIEF OF POLICE IS BEING DISCUSSED.

Commissioner Turner is taking an active interest in the discussion.

It is stated, that he will now vote to retire Chief Hodgkins, providing the latter is made a detective.

It is understood that this course is likely to be pursued.

WOMAN TAKES POISON

Mrs. Tennessee Reed of Niles Drinks Carbolic Acid.

NILES, August 14.—Mrs. Tennessee Reed, aged 23 years, wife of a well known plumber of this place took carbolic acid last evening at 8:30 o'clock and an hour later she was dead.

Mrs. Reed had been ill for a long time and became possessed of the idea that she would never recover.

For months she has been worrying over her illness until it is thought her mind was deranged.

She leaves a husband and two children.

PAROLED BY THE GOVERNOR

Mrs. Ada Werner Will Be Allowed Her Freedom.

SACRAMENTO, August 14.—Governor Tamm to-day assented to the parole of Mrs. Ada Werner, sentenced to life imprisonment at San Quentin for killing her husband in San Francisco about ten years ago.

Her husband, who was a butcher, treated her cruelly, and one day, finding a number of encircling letters in his pockets from other women, she shot and killed him. The prison directors requested that Mrs. Werner be paroled, and the Governor assented to the Butchers' Association of San Francisco, of which her husband was a member, endorsed the application for parole.

Jo Chung Tung, a Chinese sentenced to life imprisonment from Alameda county, is also paroled. There seems to be some doubt as to the Chinaman's guilt. He has served twenty years of the sentence imposed.

The Governor commutes the sentence of Walter Talmage, sentenced to Folsom from Tulare county for eighteen years for grand larceny. The prison physician affirms that Talmage is suffering from aneurism of the heart and may die at any moment. Talmage has served all but three years of his sentence.

The sentence of Christopher Murphy, who was given eighteen months in the Alameda County jail a year ago for disturbing the peace, is also commuted. Murphy, with several others, raised a disturbance in a railroad depot at Oakland, but he was the only one arrested and prosecuted. The sentence was regarded as too severe, considering the nature of the offense, and Police Judge Samuels, of Oakland, joins in the petition for the commutation of sentence.

KING EDWARD GOES TO MARIENBAD

LONDON, August 14.—King Edward left today bound for Marienbad where he will take the usual cure. On the way he will stop at Ischl, on the River Traun, where he will hold an interview with Emperor Francis Joseph.

SUPERVISORS TAKE UP THE SUPPLY CHARGES.

Assessor Henry P. Dalton and Supervisor Rowe Have a Lively Passage of Words at the Board Meeting.

The investigation into the irregularities of stationery bills furnished the Board of Supervisors commenced before that Board this morning. Supervisors Horner, Rowe, Talcott and Mitchell being present.

It had not been long in progress before warm feeling between Supervisor Rowe and County Assessor Dalton became manifest. It was inspired by articles recently published in the newspapers in which these two gentlemen appeared in referring to one another in a very lively manner.

ROWE'S STATEMENT.
Supervisor Rowe started the heating of the atmosphere by rising to a question of personal privilege, referring to certain charges made against him in the newspapers but declaring that he had made no charges against any public official, especially Assessor Dalton.

DALTON'S REPLY.
Supervisor Rowe had scarcely taken his seat before Assessor Dalton rose to his feet and said that it looked to him as though it was not to be the stationery bills which were to be investigated but Assessor Dalton. If that was the case, he wanted to be represented by an attorney.

Chairman Mitchell said that it was not a fact that Mr. Dalton was under investigation, but that the Board was going into the matter of the bills in question, and that all that Supervisor Rowe wanted was simply to clear the atmosphere.

Assessor Dalton, however, undertook to refer to something which had appeared in the papers.

Supervisor Rowe interrupted and turned in the direction of Assessor Dalton, addressing him in a personal manner.

ORDERED TO STOP.
Chairman Mitchell, however, ordered the words to cease and for the investigation to commence.

It had been previously decided that Assistant District Attorney W. J. Hynes would represent the Board in the investigation.

Attorney J. J. Burne appeared for O. L. Hasse, former clerk of the Central News Store.

Chairman Mitchell ordered Mr. Hynes to conduct the investigation in his own way. It was then that Supervisor Rowe rose to a question of personal privilege and spoke as follows:

ROWE'S SPEECH.
Mr. Rowe—Mr. Chairman, if you will permit me, I think now is the time to speak to a question of privilege in this matter. On August 7th the TRIBUNE prints the following: It says, "Dalton's Bills Were Paid," and so forth. "Editor TRIBUNE: To more completely refute the accusations made by Supervisor H. D. Rowe unofficially and through newspapers respecting my personal connection with the purchase of supplies by my office from the Central News Store, I submit the following affidavits showing the baseless character of Mr. Rowe's charges. Signed, Henry P. Dalton." Then follows a statement made by Mrs. Clabbe, Mr. Woolner and Mr. Hasse. Let me say to you, and to the public, that positively I never made a statement reflecting on Mr. Dalton or any other county official regarding these bills in any way, shape or form. I wish to say that, because he has taken the liberty, as he has many other things, of saying about me, and I want to say, in connection with this investigation, because the others have nothing to do with this—but in this matter this has a great deal to do—I am not prejudiced in any way. I said nothing more than simply what you have heard me say here in this Board, but I absolutely made no charges to any person or to the newspapers reflecting upon any county officer, much less Mr. Dalton, in regard to this case.

Mr. Dalton—Mr. Chairman, it looks to me as though this matter has started off rather as an investigation of Mr. Dalton and not of these bills. Now, if that be a fact, I would like to have it so stated here.

Chairman Mitchell—No, it is not a fact, Mr. Dalton. We are going from one bill to the other. The Board knows nothing about the investigation or of anything concerning Mr. Dalton. It is a matter we are taking up, and we are going into all these bills, those of your office just the same as the rest. Now, Mr. Rowe just wanted to clear the atmosphere to that extent, if there was any thought for a moment that he had made charges, and he wanted it understood.

Mr. Rowe—I wanted it understood now, because you are going to take up the bills.

Mr. Mitchell—That he has not made any charges, and he does not want you to think for a moment that this is an investigation of Mr. Dalton or anything of that sort.

Mr. Rowe—I want to say that positively I did not know of the charges until I saw them in the newspapers.

Mr. Dalton—Does Mr. Rowe deny that in the latter part of his communication he said that Mr. Dalton would be kept busy in answering the charges as given in the Call and the Examiner?

LIVELY DEBATE.
Mr. Rowe—Yes, sir. You are trying to drag other matters in, Mr. Dalton. You dragged this matter in there and I say that, because I had read those two charges that day, and you know it.

Mr. Dalton—You just deny that you said anything only what you said in this Board meeting.

Mr. Rowe—I did say it; I do deny it.

Mr. Dalton—You just admitted that you did say it.

Mr. Rowe—That has no connection with it. I said I read the articles in the newspaper. That is making no charges against you, and you know it, but you simply want to divert the attention, as you have all through, and make yourself out to be, "oh, the great and good man," and somebody else is persecuting.

Mr. Mitchell—Gentlemen!

Mr. Rowe—I simply do not want him to do that, because what I state is the truth, and he knows it, and bringing it in in that way, in that little, sly, cunning, foxy way, don't go with me.

Mr. Mitchell—Gentlemen, this will stop right here. This Board is here to listen to the investigation of these bills and get at the very facts. We have looked at it as a committee of the whole, and had it under investigation for months, and what we have done in private we want to do in public. If Mr. Rowe and Mr. Dalton have any further difficulties that they want to air—

Mr. Rowe—This is not the place for it.

Mr. Dalton—You do not think that any member of the Board is responsible for injecting these things?

Mr. Mitchell—I do not think so.

Mr. Dalton—All right, Mr. Chairman, we will go on then.

INCIDENT DROPPED.
Attorney J. J. Burne said he saw Reporter Hastings in the room and he would ask him if he (Hastings) had not written the article in question.

Mr. Hynes said he desired to conduct the case in his own way and the incident was dropped temporarily.

ASKS QUESTIONS.
Mr. Hynes put a number of questions and presented a number of bills to Mr. Dalton. The first bill shown by Hynes was for goods purported to have been supplied in November, 1904. He was shown the signature to the bill and said that the signature was his. His attention was directed to a number of sheets which appeared to form a part of the bill, and he was asked if they formed a part of the bill and if they were correct. He replied that if they were the sheets which were attached to the bill when he signed they were correct. He did not know whether or not the sheets were the same which had been presented to him.

Mr. Hynes then directed attention to a number of erasures on the bill in which there was a variety of erasures and in which in some instances a larger quantity of goods had been substituted for a smaller quantity and where in some instances a smaller quantity had been substituted for a larger quantity. He was asked if he knew anything about the erasures in question. His reply was:

"I don't."

Hynes—Do you know when the erasures were made or were they made by your authorization?

Dalton—They were not.

Hynes—I understand you to say that you endorse the bills as correct?

Dalton—If the pages here presented are the same that were presented to me when I put my "O. K." to them, they are correct.

THE SUBSTITUTION.
Hynes—in the bill where it appears that 1½ has been substituted for one gross and where 4 has been substituted for two dozen, you say that the original entry is correct?

Dalton—Yes.

Hynes—You recollect the amount of this bill for $124.94 on the last sheet?

Dalton—No, sir. It is very strange that these bills which were held up last November have not been brought to my attention before this. Yes, sir, these bills were held up last November. Why was not the attention of county officers called to them when their recollection could have been fresh on the subject?

Supervisor Rowe—I rise to a point of order. This is arguing the matter.

Supervisor Mitchell—Mr. Dalton simply states that if the bills had been brought to his attention at the time he could have remembered them.

Rowe—That is a matter which is to be considered later. There should be no argument now.

Mitchell—I think the point is well taken, Henry.

Hynes—On the bill of November, 1904, which bears your signature, can you say that the items on it were checked?

Dalton—I make it my practice to inquire as to all goods delivered in my office, and when I find that the bills are accurate, I put on my "O. K."

Hynes—Here are some more pages on the last of which is your signature. Is the bill correct?

Dalton—I was satisfied of the bills or I should not have put my "O. K." on them.

Hynes—How long have you known Hasse, the clerk of the Central News Store?

Dalton—I think eight or ten years.

Hynes—Ever know him in the Central News Store?

Dalton—I've known him. I think

FRENCH CLAIMS ALLOWED

VENEZUELA WILL HAVE TO PAY WHAT IT OWES FRANCE.

NORTHFIELD, Vermont, August 14.—Claims aggregating five million francs held by the French government against Venezuela, have been allowed by Referee Frank Plumley, of this place, to whom they had been referred for a decision and final judgment.

Mr. Plumley's decision was announced here today to representatives of the two governments, Count Perle de la Rocca and Dr. Jose de J. Paul.

Of the eight cases two were dismissed for want of equity and one was disallowed.

THE CLAIMS WERE FOR DAMAGES ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN SUSTAINED BY PEOPLES UNITED STATES BANK OF ST. LOUIS, CITIZENS CONDUCTING MARITIME ENTERPRISES IN VENEZUELA DURING THE INSURRECTION OF 1901. Plumley's decision is final.

CANNOT GET AN INJUNCTION

ST. LOUIS, August 14.—Judge Vandeventer of the Circuit Court has denied the amended petition filed by the Peoples United States Bank of St. Louis, asking for an injunction prohibiting the enforcement of a fraud order issued against that corporation by the United States postal authorities.

ZIMMERMAN IS GIVEN MORE TIME

MARTINEZ, Aug. 14.—When the case of Zimmerman, the Central Bank robber, was called up to-day in order that the defendant might be sentenced, he having been convicted of robbery, the matter was continued for one week, in order to allow the testimony to be written up.

Zimmerman will move for a new trial.

YACHT RACE FOR CANADA CUP

CHARLOTTE, N. Y., August 14.—Today's yacht race for the Canada cup between the Canadian challenger Temeraire and Iroquois, the American defender, started at 11 o'clock in a strong breeze on the rough sea. The Iroquois went over the line three seconds ahead of the challenger. The course was four miles to windward and return twice around, with a time limit of five and one-half hours.

MANY VOTES ARE CAST IN NORWAY

CHRISTIANA, Norway, August 14.—The returns from the national referendum on the dissolution of the union show that out of 221,358 votes cast only 161 are against dissolution.

The Storthing has been summoned to meet August 21 to take the next step towards the repeal of the act of union in agreement with Sweden.

since I've been in office.
Hynes—Did Hasse always present these bills?
Dalton—I can't say as to that.
Hynes—Can you recall Hasse presenting bills?
Dalton—Yes, he did.
Hynes—Can you recall that bills were presented by any other person than Hasse?
Dalton—Yes, sir.
Hynes—Are you familiar with the handwriting of Hasse?
Dalton—No.
Hynes—Do you know who did the writing in black ink or whose handwriting it is?
Dalton—I do not.
Hynes—I call your attention to a bill of January 14, 1905, for goods delivered in November, 1904. There are four or five sheets of paper constituting this bill. Is that your signature on the last page?
Dalton—That is my signature.
Hynes—All the words, that is all the signature, is in your handwriting.
Dalton—It is all in my handwriting.
Hynes—The articles enumerated in the body of the bill are the same as receipts for you?
Dalton—Yes, and if the other pages are the same as they were when I O. K'd them they are correct to me.
Hynes—Do you recall that there were some pages preceding one signed by you?
Dalton—I have no recollection whatsoever, but would not have O. K'd them unless I knew they were correct.
Hynes—Do you know if the items in black ink are correct?
Dalton—I would not have O. K'd them if not.
Hynes—Were erasures made by you or with your consent?
Dalton—They were not made with my consent. Neither did I authorize anyone to make them for me.
Hynes—In whose handwriting were these bills?
Dalton—I don't know.
Hynes—Who presented them?
Dalton—I don't remember.

OTHER BILLS.

Other bills dated February 1, March 1, April 1 and May 1 were also presented in evidence. Each of the bills was shown to Mr. Dalton and he was requested by Attorney Hynes to identify his signature approving of the bills.

In each case Mr. Dalton was positive that his signature was placed on the last sheet of the bills, but could not say that there were other sheets to the bills when "O. K'd" by him. He denied in every instance that he knew of erasures or changes on the bills or had made or authorized any changes or erasures.

He stated that his first intimation to the effect that there were changes in the bills came to him through the newspapers.

One of the bills presented in evidence had been approved by Deputy Assessor T. M. Robinson, but Mr. Dalton could not say when this bill had been presented at his office or who had brought it there.

At this point Supervisor Rowe, who is taking a leading part in the investigation, called Attorney Hynes aside and began an earnest conversation with him. Mr. Dalton was on his feet in an instant objecting to the proceeding.

DALTON'S QUERY.

Dalton—Is it right for a judge on the bench to ask questions of the District Attorney on the quiet when he is conducting a case?

Hynes—They were not of any importance. You'll get a square deal.

Hynes—Mr. Dalton, can you explain why it is that on the bills of November 1, January 2, February 1 and March 1 you did not insert the date after your O. K.?

Dalton—No, sir; I cannot. It there was anything wrong in not putting the dates on, I should think the person who discovered the omission would have the correction made.

Hynes—How do you account for the difference in the amounts of the bills? The amounts are November, $150.73, January, $212.44; February, $177.47; March, $145.60. April, $193.21 and May, $117.36.

Dalton—The only way I can explain it is by a comparison with the other county officers' expenses, for example the office of County Clerk.

Supervisor Rowe arose and said: "I object to the answer. It is not answering the question. It is arguing."

Hynes—Let him answer the question.

COUNTY CLERK.

Rowe—What has the office of the County Clerk to do with the office of the Assessor, the Auditor or any other office in this case? It is not an answer to the question asked by Mr. Hynes.

Chairman Mitchell—Are you satisfied with the answer Mr. Hynes?

Rowe—Does it answer your question, Mr. Hynes. If he has got the supplies, let him answer the question without explaining something in his office with something in some other office.

Mitchell—Mr. Hynes is an attorney and if the answer is not a proper one it should not have been allowed.

Mr. Hynes said that the question was somewhat informal, but the board at best was only of quasi-judicial character.

Chairman Mitchell admitted that such was the case.

Hynes—How many men do you employ, Mr. Dalton, from March to July?
Dalton—From thirty-three to thirty-five. We double our force in March.

Hynes—How then do you account for the fact that in the bills approved by you were for greater amounts when you had the least number of men in your employ, during the winter months, I mean?

Dalton—I can't account for it except to say that the office gets whatever it needs whenever it needs it. You can compare our office with that of the County Clerk and see that ours is no higher.

GEORGE PIERCE.

At this juncture, George Pierce, who is acting clerk in the absence of Jack Cook, said:

"The County Clerk supplies stationery to the Supervisors, the County Commissioners, the Public Administrator, the five departments of the Superior Court, the Law Library and the attorneys, besides his own office."

Rowe—The Supervisors also.
Pierce—I mentioned the Supervisors. There are nine departments in all that he is obliged to furnish with stationery.

Mitchell—It is well to know that.

BILLS EXAMINED.

Attorney Burke said that seven bills had been examined and Mr. Dalton had admitted that he had O. K'd bills delivered, comprising several separate pages. He asked Mr. Dalton whether he would say that those extra pages were not on the bills at the time they were delivered.

Assessor Dalton replied that he would not say that the pages were not on the bills at the time they were delivered.

Burke—Have you any reason to believe those pages were not on the bills?

Dalton—No sir, I have not.

In response to the questions from Mr. Burke, Mr. Dalton replied that no bills were ever left at the Assessor's office with the understanding that they were to be corrected after being O. K'd. He did not know who had changed the bills, but he thought it would be found out before the inquiry closed.

Hynes—I will ask you, Mr. Dalton, were the bills presented to you by the Central News Company each month, or did they send in several at a time?

Dalton—I don't remember that.

Hynes—Here is the bill for November. It was presented January 2 and filed January 11. Was it the habit of the company to hold bills over?

Dalton—I couldn't say as to that.

Hynes—Were the bills when presented to you attached to a claim against the county?

Dalton—That I don't remember. It was so long ago.

A recess was then taken by the Board until 1:30 o'clock.

AS TO PASTE.

Assessor Dalton said that he was not familiar how much paste was used in his office and the same was true with respect to pencils, rubber bands, rads, etc. Sometimes people went to his office, asked for a pad and then went away with it. There was no special employe of the office whose duty it was to order supplies. No restriction had been placed in the ordering of supplies needed by the office.

HODGES SWORN.

W. B. Hodges, Deputy Tax Collector, was sworn.

Hynes—Who orders stationery in the Tax Collector's office?

Hodges—Sometimes I do and sometimes Tax Collector Barber does.

In response to a question as to whose signature was attached to the bill of January 11, 1905, witness replied that it was his signature. He did not remember whether there were any persons present when the bill was presented.

Mr. Hodges was asked if he had received the items specified in the bills. The witness did not remember, but did not think that he had ever ordered such large quantities of supplies. He had never received twelve gallons of paste or dozens of erasers.

Mr. Sabin, the county expert, showed the witness a sample of Emerald green erasers charged on the account and Mr. Hodges stated positively that his office had never used such erasers.

The witness testified that he did not believe that he had ever seen the six pounds of patent pins charged in the bill. Mr. Hodges did not believe either that his office had ever received a gross of penholders and expressed the opinion that the item should read "one dozen" instead of "one gross."

NEVER GAVE ORDER.

Mr. Hodges said he had never ordered a dozen of Stafford writing fluid. He knew of nobody who had given such an order. The office usually received its ink in three quarts at the time. Witness also declared that he had never seen any green rubber erasures in the office and he had never ordered any spear point steel erasures. He never kept a copy of the goods he ordered and knew nothing about the price of goods.

At the time the bill was presented to him he did not recall that there were any erasures on it.

Witness was then shown bill No. 3, bearing date of December, 1904. In the bill was an item of a dozen of cork penholders. He said a dozen cork penholders would not be out of the way, but he had never ordered a gross of penholders at one time. Most of the work was done in the office in the fall, but no such order had been given by him. He had never ordered a dozen quarts of one kind of ink. There might be an order for a dozen of all kinds of ink, but no dozen was ever ordered of Carter's writing fluid or any other one at the same time. He had formerly tried to order a year's supply at one time, but he had found that that didn't work because at times he would run short on some articles and have a supply of others on hand.

MANY ERRORS.

A bill for March was then brought to the attention of Mr. Hodges and he was asked by Attorney Hynes to state whether or not the items specified in the account were delivered at his office. There were many errors. Where the witness had ordered one dozen of large blotters of ink, one gross was charged on the bill. The receipt of six quarts of paste, one gross of penholders and one dozen quarts of Carter's writing ink which appeared on the bill was also denied by Mr. Hodges.

In response to questions by Attorney J. J. Burke, Mr. Hodges said it was possible for him to order goods of which Mr. Barber knew nothing about, and it was possible for Mr. Barber to order goods about which witness knew nothing.

Burke—Was there any system in your office in the matter of ordering stationery?

Hodges—No.

Burke—How many deputies are there in your office?

Hodges—The number extends from three to twelve.

Burke—Was there any restriction in your office placed in the matter of ordering stationery supplies?

Hodges—Never heard of any. Mr. Barber said nothing to me about it.

SERVICES IN THE SOUTH

HEROES OF THE BENNINGTON REMEMBERED BY SAN DIEGO PEOPLE.

SAN DIEGO, August 14.—Memorial services in honor of the Bennington soldiers were held in this city this morning at the Isis Theater. Practically all the business houses closed at ten o'clock and an immense throng of people gathered at the theater. The Bennington's crew to the number of about 30 came ashore and marched up town with one hundred men from the flag ship Chicago as an escort. They occupied the front rows in the theater. On the stage were seated Admiral Goddard, Captain C. E. K. Moore of the Chicago, Commander Lucien Young, of the Bennington, Mayor Sehon, of San Diego, and other city officials. The other officers of the warships in the harbor and the officers from Port Rosencrans were also present. There were no decorations.

Bishop Kendrick, of Arizona, made the address, and he dwelt at some length on the heroism and bravery of the sailor boys, who he said, should be given as much honor as if they had fallen in line of battle.

The program opened with the anthem "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears" sung by the Episcopal and other church choirs. Verses from the Scriptures were read by Captain A. W. Stone, of the Chicago, after which the choir sang "Lead, Kindly Light."

Prayer was given by Rev. R. L. Bruce, of the First Methodist Church and a reading from the Bible by Rev. W. B. Henson. The address of Bishop Kendrick followed. Miss Lilly Baker, accompanied by the choir, sang "I Heard a Voice From Heaven" and another prayer by Rev. J. E. Hook, of the First Lutheran Church. The closing collect was by Chaplain Stone.

Further memorial services will be held at four o'clock this afternoon at the military cemetery on Point Loma, after which the Chicago and Bennington will leave for the north.

YOUNG WOMAN IS NERVOUS WRECK

Sarah Walters, a young woman twenty-nine years of age is confined at the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital in a highly nervous condition and on the verge of a breakdown and an effort is being made by the authorities to communicate with her relatives. She was taken in charge last night at the Oakland mole and has a ticket for Washington where her father, Walter Walters resides, but it is not believed that she is strong enough to make the trip alone.

She states that she came out to California some months ago for her health and went to visit friends at Los Angeles. She, however, became ill and wrote to her brother, who telegraphed her to come to him at Bakersfield, where he lives. She went, thinking something must have happened to him and when she got there he gave her a ticket for Washington and told her to go home. She became hysterical while making the change from the boat to the train and was taken into custody.

SUPERVISOR ROWE MAKES A SHARP REPLY

Answers the Statements Made in a Letter Issued by Assessor Henry P. Dalton.

Editor TRIBUNE—There appeared in your issue of August 7th a long communication signed by H. P. Dalton. I was out of the city at the time, and on my return concluded not to answer it because of its abusive and untruthful character. I have now determined, however, to make a short reply and this will conclude my newspaper controversy with Mr. Dalton.

I have already given my statement as to the cause of the high tax rate, so will not repeat.

ANONYMOUS CIRCULAR.

Mr. Dalton rehearses the contents of an anonymous circular distributed over a year ago reflecting on my honesty and integrity with reference to my charges for mileage. About the same time, charges were filed against me in the Superior Court by irresponsible parties accusing me of collecting $38.50 excess mileage covering a period of over three years. This circular and these charges, I have since learned through reliable sources, were written by the notorious C. S. McMullen assisted by his warm friend and companion H. P. Dalton, out of spite, revenge and with the determination to injure and humiliate me and my family, and, if possible, to defeat me for re-election to my present position.

CASE CALLED.

The case was called before the Hon. Judge W. E. Greene, now deceased, and after a full hearing on all points of law and practice, and after offering my accusers time to amend and swear to the complaint properly (which had not been done) my accusers refused to do so, whereupon the case was dismissed.

I went before the Grand Jury, then in session, and demanded a full investigation. This was granted, and after a full and exhaustive hearing, the following verdict was rendered and is now on file with the County Clerk, viz:

"We (the Grand Jury) have investigated the charges brought against Supervisor H. D. Rowe in regard to his having charged excessive mileage and in our judgment, Supervisor Rowe did not overcharge mileage, but acted within the law provided to govern Supervisors in the matter of mileage."

It would seem as though a verdict of this kind given by nineteen representative citizens sworn to do their duty, without fear or favor, ought to be conclusive. Yet this shameless fellow endeavors to besmirch my character by repeating such untruthful charges.

BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

I then went before the people as a candidate for re-election with the result that I was returned to office by the largest majority ever given a Supervisor in Alameda county. Yet after these three hearings, Mr. Dalton comes now, and rehearses and repeats the same old and disproven charges of "$38.50 excessive mileage" in three years and over.

And he is not ashamed to do this, but furthermore repeats other statements which he knows to be false and malicious. Dalton says:

"During the month of February, 1902, Mr. Rowe charged $10.80 or at the rate of 40 cent per meeting for attending Board meetings or 27 meetings, etc."

THE MILEAGE.

In reply to this charge, I give below an exact copy of my bill for mileage for month of February, 1902:

H. D. Rowe, Supervisor, on the treasury of the county of Alameda, State of California, for the sum of $39.40, being for mileage for month of February, 1902.

The within claim is a proper county charge.

JOHN J. ALLEN,

District Attorney.

By GEORGE SAMUELS,

Assistant District Attorney.

I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct copy of Warrant No. 1519 on file in my office.

G. W. BACON,

Auditor Alameda County.

THE TUNNEL.

Again Dalton says "During the construction of the tunnel between Alameda and Contra Costa counties, Supervisor Rowe was general superintendent. He owns a horse and buggy and yet the records show that during the construction of said tunnel, there was paid for buggy hire a total of $139.75 during five months of the year. This cunning fellow doesn't tell you that I hired a buggy, but there was paid for buggy hire," etc., intimating that I hired and used the buggy.

Now let us see again: During the entire time of the building of the tunnel and the tunnel road, there was furnished for the use of the master mechanic and two foremen, a delivery wagon, and supply wagon, and horses and mules used for hauling the cars, bill for same amounting to $137.75. The bills on file show this expenditure, and this explains the above-mentioned buggy hire, which Mr. Dalton refers to and intimates that it was for my personal use.

CALLED NAMES.

Dalton has called me "Fool, fakir, grifter and liar," but that does not prove me to be either. He has neither proven nor attempted to prove a single statement made by him.

He started this newspaper controversy because I held him up to light before the Board of Equalization and showed him in his true position.

Now that I have proven that Mr. Dalton has deliberately and grossly misstated facts by the quotations from the Grand Jury, Mr. Dalton and Mr. Hynes, I will not notice anything more he may say about me, but will leave it to the judgment of the people. H. D. ROWE.

MAKES UP WITH ACCUSED HUSBAND

N. J. Peterson, arrested a short time ago for shooting at his wife while in a state of intoxication pleaded guilty this morning before Judge Waste in Department 5 to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon under the advice of his attorney A. L. Erick, who hopes to get him out on probation.

Peterson's wife was in court and kissed her husband as he left the courtroom for the jail, and they have patched up their differences and she is not willing now to prosecute the charges against him. Other than the fact of his drinking she has no complaint against him and it is believed that such a showing can be made as will satisfy the court to allow him his liberty with the understanding that at any time that he makes any more disturbance he can be arrested and the sentence for the offense to which he has pleaded guilty be imposed on him.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY MAKES DIGNIFIED REPLY

Says the Charges Made Against His Office Have No Foundation in Fact.

District Attorney Allen, when interviewed this morning concerning the Examiner article, said:

"The Examiner article says that Deputies Harris and Hynes counted the money in place of myself. I can see no reason why a deputy cannot perform that duty. Special deposits are made by the Treasurer under Section 83 of the County Government Act, which provides that:

"Nothing in this section prohibits him from making special deposits for the safe-keeping of the public money, but he shall be liable therefor on his official bond."

"The chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Auditor and District Attorney count the money once a month. The certificates of the Treasurer call for special deposits made in the various banks. With reference to the school bonds, Deputy Hynes handled that matter, and I think it was handled properly under the law and the proceedings of the Oakland School District.

"With reference to the Supervisors' claim, Section 49 of the County Government Act provides that they shall be verified. That requires the Supervisors to make affidavit that they are correct and we receive them in this form. The Supervisors are not permitted by law to collect over one hundred dollars in any one month for mileage. I know of no instance in which a Supervisor has collected more than that amount in one month.

"We rely upon the affidavit of the Supervisors for the correctness of the claim and express our opinion upon the legality of it."

ENVOYS GETTING AT PEACE ARTICLES

many operations.

PEACE CONDITIONS.

When they formulated their conditions of peace the origin of the whole struggle between Russia and Japan was kept steadily in view. Korea, which was the real bone of contention (Korea being the subject of an agreement in 1896), and which formed the basis of the request for the negotiations preceding the war, was first.

Second it is safe to say, is the evacuation of Manchuria, the continued occupation of which by Russia, Japan claimed, threatened the independence of Korea and the safety of Japan. In support of this claim she took a leaf out of the book of arguments used by Russia in 1895, when she was compelled by Russia, supported by France and Germany, to abandon the Liaoting peninsula and the Shimonoseki straits on the very ground that the possession of Port Arthur and Liaoting threatened Korea's independence.

These are the two main objects designed to protect the safety of Japan, which Japan has fought. Then might come, logically, Port Arthur and the Liaoting leases, to satisfy the desire for revenge which the Japanese nation felt on account of being despised, as they claimed, of the fruits of their victory over China in 1895. The question of the Chinese Eastern Railroad might come next. And then, before the "spoils of war," Japan's bill for "the cost of the war."

AS TO SAKHALEIN.

The only reason why the cession of Sakhalin might precede the bill for the cost of the war is the fact that Japan has always felt that the island belonged to her by right of discovery and conquest and that she had been compelled, when too weak to defend her rights, to yield it to her adversary.

IN SESSION.

The morning session of the peace conference came to an end at 1:30 o'clock. At that time the session was adjourned.

The plenipotentiaries and the members of their suites repaired immediately to the luncheon. Preparations for luncheon were begun at the naval stores building shortly after the adjournment will continue in the afternoon. There is an entire absence of formality to parlors, which is across the hall from the general conference room.

The plenipotentiaries have several times sat down together at the lunch table, while the members of the Russian and Japanese delegations have mingled freely on these occasions. Secretary of the United States Government is maintaining in the naval stores building. It was the original intention that separate lunch-rooms should be provided, one for the Japanese and one for the Russians, but the envoys have eaten together at their noon meal.

Article I, as agreed to by the plenipotentiaries at the morning session, was not in the language submitted by the Japanese. It had been modified to meet the wishes of the Russian plenipotentiaries, but to what extent cannot be definitely stated.

Mr. Witte had insisted that Japan's purpose was to make a dependence of Korea and to establish a protectorate over Korea. Mr. Witte was prepared from the beginning to accept the article, his only objection being as to the form. He wanted the language at least to show that Japan intended to establish a protectorate over Korea.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The peace conference resumed its session at 3 o'clock. None of the plenipotentiaries left the building during the lunch recess. A secretary from each mission made the trip from the West wing and returned before the second session began.

FIVE DEATHS A DAY IN THE SOUTH

Southern Pacific Will Keep the Runaways Off Its Freight Trains.

Noon fever report.
New cases in New Orleans since 6 p. m. Sunday, 37 (X).
Total cases to date, 851.
Deaths today, 7.
Total deaths, 161.
(X) Includes nineteen new cases reported late last night and not included in the totals.

The second month of the fight against yellow fever in New Orleans began at noon today, with indications that the figures would easily approximate those of yesterday. There were twelve deaths yesterday, a slight excess over the figures for the preceding few days, but this increase is to be expected on account of the large number of cases reported for the past five days. The disease is slowly spreading in New Orleans, despite the magnificent work of the Federal authorities, but the increase of new cases outside the city is almost imperceptible.

The weather in New Orleans today is hot and threatening.
NEW ORLEANS, August 14.—With nearly one-half of August gone, and with the total deaths since July 13, one month, of only 164, or an average of five a day, the Marine Hospital Service authorities today began the second week of their fight against yellow fever.

In spite of all appeals that have been made by the press and the Federal authorities, there is still suppression of cases.

One instance is that of a daughter of a well-known lawyer.

She is said to have had a typical case and to have been treated only by a nearby druggist. When discovered by a doctor the condition was hopeless, and yesterday she died.

The consequence is that steps are to be taken to compel druggists to make prompt report of all cases of illness that come under their observation.

The Southern Pacific has taken steps to meet the charge made some time since that people were skipping into Texas on freight trains.

Deputy sheriffs have been put on all such trains, with instructions to eject any one found riding on them.

The Federal authorities have begun the room-to-room inspection of the whole city. That has already been done in the originally infected area, but it is now being done in every ward, and it is expected to turn up every concealed case of fever that exists.

ANOTHER CONTEST FILED IN SUPERVISORS SESSION

MUCH LITIGATION OVER THE ESTATE OF THE LATE NED THAYER.

While Florence Morris and Mabel Angell, the daughters of the late Edward T. Thayer, have brought a contest in their own behalf over the will of their late father and against their stepmother, Mrs. Emma Thayer, a separate and distinct contest was filed this morning by Lillian Thayer Dowling, as guardian of Milton E. Thayer, a grandson of the deceased, and she now asks that the will of the deceased and certain gift deeds whereby Thayer gave his wife all of his property amounting to about $10,000 to his widow be set aside and the child, now nine years of age, be declared an heir.

The child is the son of Randolph C. Thayer, deceased, who was the son of Edward Thayer, and it is claimed for the child that he is entitled to share the estate with the widow and his two aunts who are now contesting the will. The complaint alleges that owing to the influence exerted over the deceased by Emma Thayer that she got him not only to deed her all of his property prior to his death, but that she influenced him in making out a will confirming these deeds. It is claimed that the deeds and will were made out within a short time of his death and while he was in a condition of mental incapacity. The estate is valued at $7,000.

ROUTINE MATTERS HANDLED AT THE MEETING THIS MORNING.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning, Supervisors Horner, Mitchell, Rowe and Talcott were present. Supervisor Kelley was absent because of illness.

ASSESSMENT.
On the recommendation of Deputy Assessor Robinson the assessment of the property of the First Unitarian Church was canceled, on the ground that it was exempt from taxation as church property under the State law.

The requisition of Justice of the Peace Quinn for 2,000 envelopes was granted.

TO LEAVE THE STATE.

Justice J. G. Quinn was granted a leave of absence for sixty days, with permission to leave the State.

SALOON LICENSES.
Applications for saloon licenses were received as follows: August F. Knick, Saratoga avenue and San Leandro road; William Grantin, Decoto; Frank E. Vargas, Alvarado; John C. Bondé, Dougherty.

HIGH SCHOOL MONEY.
A communication was received from A. T. Biddle, clerk of the board of Union High School District No. 2 at Centerville, asking the Supervisors to appropriate $4,500 for the maintenance of the High School of that district for the school year of 1905-6. The request was referred to the committee of the whole.

Justice Sandholt of Centerville was granted a Justice's docket at his own request.

FIRE BOYS HAVE FOUR RUNS

The fire department responded to four alarms yesterday, but all of the blazes were insignificant. A defective chimney flue at the residence of E. M. Long, 1557 Eleventh street, caused the first alarm. The second was a still from the corner of Fourteenth and Myrtle streets. No fire was discovered there. At 3 o'clock an alarm was turned in from the corner of Fourteenth street and Myrtle place, where a grass fire was burning. The fourth alarm was turned in from 1417 Grove street. An ash barrel was the cause of the trouble.

HAD A FIGHT IN A SALOON

M. E. Lulibradich and M. J. Rice were arrested last night by Policeman McCready for disturbing the peace by fighting in a saloon at 417 Fourteenth street. The man with the longer name pleaded not guilty, but Rice, who instead of appearing in Department 2, showed up in Department 1 of the Police Court, accidentally forfeited $25 bail. Judge Samuels will probably set aside the order forfeiting Rice's money tomorrow and give him a chance to tell whether he or his antagonist was in the wrong.

CITY EQUALIZERS WILL MEET

The City Board of Equalization will meet tonight to pass on several applications for a reduction of assessment. The session will probably be brief. The Councilmen will not meet as a Council.

HELP WANTED—MALE.
Men Wanted—Men who will be strong. Not where the tide of battle rolls. But where the rogue whose purse is long.

Would buy our rights and claim our souls!
Men Wanted—Men who can withstand The money in the tempter's hand.

Men Wanted—Men who can be brave. Not facing foreign foes in arms. But where the selfish would enslave. By spreading money's subtle charms!

Men Wanted—Men with strength to lead. Unhindered and unsmirched by Greed.

Men Wanted—Men who have been born With pride and strength enough to face Debauchery and treat with scorn Its promises of wealth and place!

Men Wanted—Men who still can take The honest course for manhood's sake. —S. E. Kiser.

LENT.
'Tis now that the housecleaning fervor Holds sway in the heart of the fair; The world and the flesh and the devil Were dwelling in happiness there.

But lately the ease loving trio Are filled with forebodings and fears; The devil comes home in the evening To fall in a bucket of tears.

The world walks unthinking of changes, While into the portal he slips, And promptly, disastrously, over The stool of repentance he trips.

The flesh would fain bask by the fire-side, But still as he steers for the seat, He sits in a scuffle of ashes And rises no more to his feet.

WANT TO KNOW OF FARMS

STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE WANTS MORE FACTS.

SACRAMENTO, August 14.—The State Board of Agriculture has issued five copies of statistical blanks to every Board of Supervisors in California. Briefly stated, the object of these blanks is to collect important data relating to the agricultural, horticultural and manufacturing interests of the State.

They are issued under an act of the Legislature, which makes it the duty of Boards of Supervisors to furnish to the secretary of the State Agricultural Society certain statistical information, and declaring the same to be a county charge.

The statistics to be collected cover the whole range of State activities, and they will show, at a glance, the exact position occupied by each and every county.

The classifications include cereals, hay, fruit, vegetables, nuts, wines, brandies, live stock, poultry, dairy, fish, forests and manufactures, while a special schedule deals with productions shipped out of the State.

When these schedules are issued they will form a compendium of the State's industries, of the most complete and valuable nature, as well as showing the comparative position occupied by each county, under the various classifications.

Albert Lindley, the secretary of the State Agricultural Society, said: "A report of this nature will be valuable from many different points of view. It will show the comparative production of each county, and it will provide the public with authentic tables showing the entire output of the whole State. Nothing has ever yet been issued giving absolutely correct figures regarding California products. Without such schedule we are unable to answer questions put to us by the Government, and we are often at a loss how to reply to the letters that reach us, to the number of from twenty-five to fifty per day. Some of these letters are very difficult to answer without appearing to discriminate between one county and another, but printed schedules such as these would speak for themselves and render it unnecessary for us to express opinions as to the relative merits of different parts of the State. The statements in the schedules will be sworn to, they will be official, and they will be reliable."

"Such tabulated information as this will be invaluable, not only to State officials, but to newspapers, Chambers of Commerce, importers and exporters, and, in fact, to every one who has any interest in knowing what each particular county is doing in the way of production. The schedules will be necessarily complete, because the Supervisors are required by law to supply the data asked for, and they will be reminded that the obligation is of a positive and a binding nature. It is to the interest of the State that this information shall be made publicly available, and every one will therefore co-operate to that end."

EXPORTS LARGEST FOR YEARS

EXCELLENT SHOWING IS MADE BY THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—Statistics compiled by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor shows that the export of manufactures in the fiscal year just ended amounted to $43,820,237, as against $42,415,921 in the preceding year, $42,851,756 in 1903 and $38,305,543 in 1902 of manufactures.

The exports for the past fiscal year were not only the largest on record, but are in excess of the combined exports of all articles in the centennial year, 1876, and nearly $140,000,000 more than the total imports and exports of the country at the close of the Civil War.

The growth in the exportation of manufactures is shown to have largely exceeded the growth in population. Out of thirty leading articles, only seven show a falling off for the year as compared with 1904. Iron and steel manufactures supply about one-fourth of the total exports, worth $14,727,021, as against $11,846,585 in the preceding year. Steel rails showed an increase of $6,000,000, chiefly in shipments to Canada, South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Japan and other Oriental countries.

The copper exports also show an increase in 1905 of more than $6,000,000 over 1904. A curious feature is the large increase in exports of locomotives to Japan. Fifty engines having been sent thither in 1905, as against seventy-four in the previous year.

Mexico and Argentina increased their purchases of American sewing-machines, while Japan increased her purchases of electrical machinery and builders' material each in a substantial degree. Copper manufactures take second rank with a total valuation of $8,225,291 in 1905, as compared with $6,712,051 in 1904. There was an increase of $10,000,000 in the copper exports to China.

There was an increase in the exportation of mineral oils—the third article in importance—of over 100,000,000 gallons, but owing to the fall in price the amount is only stationary. The oil export for 1905 was $61,000,000, as against $47,000,000 gallons. The value for 1905 was $11,888,317, and for 1904 was $71,755,552.

To Great Britain and Ireland 271,000,000 gallons were sent, Germany 147,000,000, and to the Netherlands 17,000,000. Only 85,000,000 gallons were exported to South America.

Cotton manufactures present one of the striking features of the year's exports, having advanced from $22,403,713 in 1904 to $49,005,080 in the year just ended. The growth occurred chiefly in cotton cloth exports, $14,886,199 being the total in 1904, and $41,220,542 the figure for 1905. To China there was an increase of about 400,000,000 yards over last year's exportation of 753,000,000, and the value of our cotton cloth exported to that country increased from $4,000,000 in 1904 to $27,750,000 in 1905.

Japan was the only other country to show a considerable increase, the total being 16,000,000 yards, as against 440,000 yards in 1904.

Leather and its manufactures, fourth in importance in the list of manufactured articles exported, showed an increase of $4,000,000, the total in 1905 having been $28,000,000, as compared with $24,000,000 in the preceding year. In this class also Japan is credited with the chief increase.

DECLARES HE LOST TEN DOLLARS

Ed Nelson, residing at 380 Tenth street, reported to Chief of Police Hodgkins this morning that he had lost $10 last Saturday night somewhere and somehow. He is unable to give the police any idea of how he got separated from the money and not much encouragement was held out to him relative to its recovery.

ONE CHARGE WILL STILL STAND

A charge of resisting an officer preferred against J. S. Meyer by Special Policeman Murdock and Deputy Sheriff Dameral was dismissed by Police Judge Smith this morning. A charge of using vulgar language, however, was placed against the defendant and will be heard on August 24.

SOMEBODY STOLE HER VALISE

SAY, HE STOLE THEIR WATCHES

The police are looking for Fred Schofield, alias Ed Williams, a seaman formerly employed on board the United States revenue cutter Rush, now being repaired, who is accused by his fellow shipmates of having taken two watches $5 in cash and other valuables, from the boat. Schofield left the boat last Saturday night.

HELP WANTED—MALE.
Men Wanted—Men who will be strong. Not where the tide of battle rolls. But where the rogue whose purse is long.

Would buy our rights and claim our souls!
Men Wanted—Men who can withstand The money in the tempter's hand.

Men Wanted—Men who can be brave. Not facing foreign foes in arms. But where the selfish would enslave. By spreading money's subtle charms!

Men Wanted—Men with strength to lead. Unhindered and unsmirched by Greed.

Men Wanted—Men who have been born With pride and strength enough to face Debauchery and treat with scorn Its promises of wealth and place!

Men Wanted—Men who still can take The honest course for manhood's sake. —S. E. Kiser.

LENT.
'Tis now that the housecleaning fervor Holds sway in the heart of the fair; The world and the flesh and the devil Were dwelling in happiness there.

But lately the ease loving trio Are filled with forebodings and fears; The devil comes home in the evening To fall in a bucket of tears.

The world walks unthinking of changes, While into the portal he slips, And promptly, disastrously, over The stool of repentance he trips.

The flesh would fain bask by the fire-side, But still as he steers for the seat, He sits in a scuffle of ashes And rises no more to his feet.

HOW THE NEWARK BOYS STOLE A GAME

Players From Irvington Lost a Pile of Money on the Result.

NEWARK, August 14.—There was a coup made here yesterday in the baseball business that has set the country side in a laugh. Pitcher Brown of the Tacomas was smuggled into the Newark team yesterday and with Freddie Favor of San Francisco, a crack amateur catcher, won a game for the local team over a team from Irvington that will long be remembered in this community.

Incidentally nearly everyone here put a bet on the game with some one from Irvington and sent the visitors home not only beaten but light in the pocket to an extent of between $500 and $500.

The game yesterday was the culmination of a series of games that have been played between the Newark and Irvington clubs that have made a keen rivalry and led to no end of discussion. Gradually each side has been strengthening its ball players by outside help, and two weeks ago Manager Otto Hirst of Irvington came over here with a picked nine said to have come from San Francisco. As a result of these contests a game was arranged for to be played yesterday that was recognized to be the test of who was the best could muster the best team. Hirst of Irvington secured the country for players and got together an aggregation that he believed was invincible, and came over here with the price that goeth before a fall.

A. H. Snow, manager of the local team, let it generally be known that there would be little or no change in his aggregation, and when the teams were exercising before the game had, with the exception of Brown, men who had played with his team before and were local men. Bets were freely made and when the game finally began Brown mingled with the balance of the team and finally took his place in the box.

It was a story of a succession of strikes from the first inning to the last without a run being scored, while the local aggregation had finally three runs to its credit. The game, however, became exciting in the last inning, owing to an error at short stop in the last half of the final inning the visitors scoring two runs. The game, however, was Newark's by a score of three to two.

The festivities and jubilation were kept up for hours after the game was over and until daylight this morning, and the money so easily gained was freely spent, and only dawn ushering in a new day brought all to an end.

TAFT AND PARTY AT ILOILO

Visitors Are Given a Warm Reception on Island.

ILOILO, Philippines, August 13.—The United States transport Logan, with Secretary of War Taft, Miss Roosevelt, and party on board, arrived from Manila this evening.

Tugs with the local governor and a large reception committee consisting of officers of the army and navy and leading citizens, and with a band playing, met the Logan down the bay.

The reception committee went on board the transport and formally welcomed the party. The members of which will remain on board the vessel until tomorrow morning.

A great reception awaits the party here tomorrow.

The viceroys of the Chinese provinces of Kiangtung and Kiangsi have called upon the United States government toward the Philippines as given in his recent speech at Manila, and will reconstruct its platform in accordance therewith.

The Federal party has accepted Secretary Taft's statement of the attitude of the United States government toward the Philippines as given in his recent speech at Manila, and will reconstruct its platform in accordance therewith.

DESPERATE CHINESE USES HIS PISTOL IN THE NORTH.

VANCOUVER, B. C., August 14.—Two Chinese merchants are dead and the son of one of them is dying in the hospital as the result of a tragedy which occurred here. The dead are: Fung Sing and Fung Sing, partners in a tailoring business at 30 Canton street, in the center of Vancouver's Chinatown.

At 4 o'clock in the morning Fung Sing started out on a tour of murder. First he shot and fatally wounded Fung Lee, son of the Chinese merchant, and then turned to the latter. Having finished the family Sing turned the revolver on himself, and shot at his head and must have caused instantaneous death.

Fourteen other inmates of the rooms above the tailor shop where the tragedy occurred were taken in charge by the police, and are being held pending an order from the coroner.

They say that the two merchants quarreled Saturday afternoon. When Sing later threatened to kill the old man and his son.

When dressed, Sing crossed the hall yesterday morning, opened the door of the young man's room, and fired a shot into the entry of a revolver, and placed the muzzle against the lad's head. The bullet went through the young man's face, broke his jaw and imbedded itself in the wall beyond.

Sing went upstairs to his partner's room. The door was locked, and he fired five shots through the panels. These apparently did not take effect, and Sing then got a hatchet, tried to open the door, and shot the old man through the heart.

Then he leisurely went to the rear, threw the hatchet out of the window, and killed himself.

WILL GIVE REWARD FOR LOST PICTURE

Editor TRIBUNE: The Minister of the Interior at The Hague calls the attention of the general public to the fact that on the morning of the 7th day of July, 1905, between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock, a small picture of Frans Hals was taken from its frame in one of the rooms of the Royal Gallery (Mauritshuis) at The Hague.

The picture was painted on wood, and was nine and one-half inches long, and seven and one-half inches wide. It represented a man, half length, the body mustaches are turned upward and he has a pointed beard. The background of the picture is grayish blue.

A reward of 5000 florins ($2000) will be given to any one who will bring this picture back or will furnish any details which will lead to the finding and restoration of this valuable article.

All information regarding this matter kindly address as soon as possible to the picture gallery of the Royal Picture Gallery (Mauritshuis) at The Hague, Holland. Please publish the above.

GEORGE G. MARSILY, Consul for the Netherlands.

VOLCANO FOUND IN THE NORTH

RENO, Nev., August 14.—A volcano, throwing off molten lava and in active operation, was discovered in Nevada yesterday morning by Messrs. McClure, Wheeler and Sommers of Lovelock.

The volcano is located in Rye Patch, Humboldt county. Although that section has been traversed for years the crater was found yesterday for the first time. The men were in search of cattle when they came upon the stream of lava, and tracing it to its source, located the volcano. The rocks for some distance around were hot that they could not touch them with their bare hands.

The volcano is active. This is attested by the fact that distinct rumblings accompany the flow of lava.

ANATEUR THEATRE.

The amateur theater, "The Linden Playhouse," will reopen on Friday evening, August 18, with a fine program. The sketch will be the old-comical farce, entitled "Taking Stock Under Difficulties." A few improvements have been made in the theater. On opening night the auditorium will be decorated in green and sovereign programs will be given each night. The theater is situated at Twelfth and Linden streets.

INDIANS ARE KILLED IN A LANDSLIDE

Scores of Unhappy People Are Entombed in Presence of Passengers on a Train.

SPENCE'S BRIDGE, B. C., August 14.—A score of Indians were buried alive by a terrible landslide which occurred half a mile west of here this afternoon.

About 3:30 o'clock, just as the Canadian Pacific express, eastbound, was passing the spot the passengers were horrified by the sight of a large portion of the mountain on the north side of the Thompson river sweeping down to the stream. With a terrific roar, but so swiftly that those below had no idea of the danger, the immense body of earth and rocks crashed down into the river.

Directly in the path of the landslide was an Indian rancheria, peopled by about fifty or sixty Indians. Before the eyes of the hundreds of passengers across the river these victims were suddenly overwhelmed. In the twinkling of an eyelash that which had been a peaceful rural scene was changed to a hill of loose earth and stones, which dammed the river bed forty feet in height and a quarter of a mile in width.

The water of the river was thrown high up the side of the mountain by the terrific force with which the landslide struck bottom, but before the spectators fully realized what had happened all was still again. Beyond a cloud of dust, rising slowly like smoke from the trail of the landslide, and the rivulets formed by the water down the mountain side, there was no visible sign of the train at Ashcroft, B. C., a relief party was formed, but the Indians entombed beneath the immense pile of debris which had fallen were beyond all human aid. A few bodies, shockingly mangled, were found on the edge of the landslide, but most of the victims are buried forty feet deep, and will probably never be recovered.

The number of dead and injured is estimated at nearly fifty. There were sixty Indians in the village when the landslide occurred, and not more than a dozen escaped.

COAL DEALERS TO DARE NOT GIVE OUT POISON

WILL HAVE A LARGE TIME AT SAN LORENZO ON WEDNESDAY.

The Coal Dealers' Protective Association of Alameda county will give a picnic at San Lorenzo Grove on Wednesday, August 16.

There will be numerous games, which will include a baseball game, also dancing and gate prizes.

There will be about forty handsome gate prizes for the lucky winners of games. These prizes will range from two tons of coal to five cents in cash.

The picnic will leave by the San Lorenzo cars which will be at Seventh and Washington between the hours of nine and eleven a. m.

The return tickets will be thirty-five cents, with transfer on the return ticket to any part of Oakland, Alameda or Berkeley.

The Woodmen's Band will accompany the picnicers to the grounds. Admission to the grounds will be twenty-five cents.

NEW RULE FOR ZION

MEMBERS CANNOT MARRY WITHOUT APOSTOLIC LICENSE.

CHICAGO, August 14.—From this time henceforth there will be no marriage of members of Zion without an apostolic license, was the new addition to church government promulgated by John Alexander Dowie at Zion City today.

He came down from his summer resort to give the faithful the message. The tabernacle contained about 5,000 people, including two excursion parties.

"Two members have been married by a Justice of the Peace," he began, "without permission of the apostle. They may be married legally, according to the laws of Illinois, but I do not consider that they are married in the sight of the church."

Hereafter every member must have an apostolic license, and elders are forbidden to marry any couple that have not been examined and received permission to marry.

"Another thing I want to announce is that the poor who are now married and are not getting along right should come to me. If the husband imposes on his wife I will see that there is a separation. If the wife is not making a good helpmate for her husband, let me know, and I will see that she mends her ways or gets out of here."

CHINESE OF HONG KONG WANT TO HOLD PUBLIC MEETINGS.

HONGKONG, August 14.—Chinese residents of this city are applying to the Government for permission to hold public meetings for the purpose of discussing the boycott on American goods.

STRANDED SHIP FLOATED AGAIN

PHILADELPHIA, August 14.—The steamship Reccoline, Captain Jones, from New Orleans, which went ashore in the Delaware river yesterday, was floated at high tide. The vessel arrived at her dock today.

CASE CONTINUED.

Police Judge Samuels this morning continued the case of S. J. Brock, accused of carrying concealed weapons, and also of being drunk until tomorrow for sentence.

ARREST WAS A MISTAKE

MAN HAS A RIGHT TO DEFEND HIMSELF FROM HOODLUMS.

Frank Conlon, a farmer, arrested last night by Policemen Scanlan and Green, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, preferred by Patrick Powell and Ed Lurie, had the case dismissed before Police Judge Smith this morning. In dropping the case, Prosecuting Attorney Leach said:

"It is an outrage that this man was arrested. According to the statements of the police officers, these two boys, Powell and Lurie, who are under arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace, had been stealing fruit from Conlon. They came up to him and called him vile names and threatened him with bodily harm. He merely got a club to protect himself. On the ground that the arrest should not have been made, I ask that the case be dropped from the calendar."

Judge Smith granted the request. The two youths under arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace, had their cases set for August 16.

WOUNDED MEN AT VALLEJO

VICTIMS OF THE BENNINGTON HAVE ARRIVED AT MARE ISLAND.

VALLEJO, August 14.—Twenty-four wounded men from the Bennington arrived at the Mare Island Navy Yard today. They were taken from the railroad station to the naval hospital in a launch which was sent from the yard with a doctor and other attendants. Medical Director Simons has made complete arrangements for the comfort and care of the men.

SLASHED HER RIVAL WITH A RAZOR

Jealous Colored Woman Marks Her Enemy for Life at a Baseball Game.

The jealousy of Iago was no fiercer than that which prompted the action of Annie Barney, a colored girl from San Francisco, who slashed her rival, Ida Carter, with a razor yesterday afternoon at Idora Park, where two colored baseball teams were contesting a hard fought game on the diamond.

As a result of the attack of Miss Barney, she was arrested and taken to the County Jail, where she is now pending the arrival of some of her friends from San Francisco to bail her out.

Ida Carter, the victim of the assault, was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where a number of slashes, several inches in length were sewn up, but beside the disfigurement of her features and the loss of considerable blood, she was not seriously hurt, and was able to return to San Francisco.

From what she said as to the causes that led up to the quarrel, the tender passion had been aroused in the breasts of both of them by the same man and she finally seemed to be gaining more of his favors than her rival, and things came to a climax yesterday when the two met out at Idora and Miss Carter was accompanied by the man who was the cause of the animosity.

The sight of her happiness was too much for the Barney woman, she said, with the result that while she was sitting down she was attacked by Annie Barney and a razor was drawn swiftly across her face in different directions. "Revenge alone, it is stated, was the cause that led up to the assault, and the Barney woman, in the belief that if her rival's good looks could be effected could again win back her lover, took to this means of carrying out her purpose."

FOUND WIFE HAD ELOPED

NORTHERN MAN GETS RICH AT MINES BUT LOSES FAMILY.

TACOMA, Wash., August 11.—After six months spent in Alaska, John Simms, an Eastern Washington rancher, returned to his home with a fortune taken from the mines to find that his wife had eloped with Henry Bishop, his supposed friend, taking with her five children.

Simms returned in April, and since that time has spent much money traveling through the State in an effort to locate his children. Yesterday he asked the police to assist him in the search.

Simms refuses to discuss the elopement or to give any particulars except such meagre ones as he furnished to the police to aid them in finding the children. He says he does not care to presect Bishop or his wife, but he does want his children. He has known Bishop for years and regarded him as a friend.

JAPANESE ARE NOW ADVANCING

GETTING READY TO GIVE THE RUSSIANS ANOTHER BATTLE.

GODAZATANI, Manchuria, August 12 (delayed in transmission).—The Japanese began to advance against the Russians at Yanchow pass and at Zomouth at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Their forces were not very numerous, there being only two battalions in each party.

The movement took the form of a demonstration. The Russian forces fell back in good order.

The Chinese in this vicinity are again significantly leaving for the southward.

The flat French sailor hat with a fuching of lace is being worn abroad.

ELOPERS ALLOWED TO WED

PARENTS GIVE CONSENT AFTER THE CHILDREN RUN AWAY.

Miss Elvira Perez, aged sixteen, and Wesley Bates, aged twenty-three years, were married today after a series of difficulties with the police and their respective parents.

An elopement had been in love for several years.

The youth of the bride seemed to be a barrier to complete happiness as long as the parents had anything to say in the matter.

An elopement followed parental advice to wait awhile.

Mrs. R. A. Aston, mother of the bride, notified the police, who began a search for the couple.

They were located yesterday, with the result that marriage was consented to by the parents of both the groom and the bride.

A white serge frock is the very foundation of the seashore wardrobe.

TAGGART MAY MAKE UP WITH HIS WIFE

He Has Been Considerate of Her Feelings While on the Witness Stand.

WOOSTER, Ohio, Aug. 14.—The climax of the Taggart divorce case came today when Captain Taggart declared on his direct examination that he had always been a faithful husband. This was near the close of his testimony and was in answer to a question by his attorney.

While on the stand the captain continued his story of the events leading up to the separation of himself and his wife.

He told of the farwell with his wife, when they decided to separate and when he was going to the Philippines, when she affectionately called him "Tag" and kissed him goodbye.

In the cross-examination which was interrupted by the adjournment at noon until Monday, Attorney Smyzer for Mrs. Taggart sought to convey the impression that Taggart alone was responsible for the over-indulgence of his wife in intoxicating liquors, that line of questioning will probably be pursued on Monday.

CADETS DRANK.
Taggart frankly admitted that the cadets drank about all the drinks they knew of, and that they came pretty fast and that he liked them. He did not become drunk, and drank temperately as invariably afterwards. Replying to a question as to how much he drank at Fort Douglas, Taggart replied:

"I dare say about the same as you would have drank."

The court room burst into a roar of laughter at this.

Taggart kept whiskey and beer for the entertainment of guests, and usually drank with them, but never alone. He would offer guests drinks six times a day if they would drink that often, but himself would observe his habit of sobriety by reducing the size of his drink.

ABOUT BEER.

He said that she had been reared to abstain from liquor. During the cohabitation he thought "this little woman" had been infatuated with him. He denied that he "induced" her to drink beer when she first joined him at Plattsburg Barracks, but said he raised no objection when the trained nurse who accompanied her from Chicago suggested it. She drank it, as he said, for medicinal purposes and he accepted her reason as true.

There is talk in Wooster of a possible reconciliation between the estranged husband and wife, as a result of the developments of the case, and it is pointed out that Captain Taggart has been as considerate as he possibly could, of Mrs. Taggart's feelings during the case.

WOMAN JUMPS IN BURNER

Awful Death of Annie Hoop in the North.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Aug. 14.—A dispatch to the Herald from Anacortes says:
Miss Annie Hoop, of Seattle, aged 35, committed suicide by jumping in the burner at a sawmill here Friday. Efforts were made to rescue her with a grapple and by turning the hose on the struggling woman. She was identified by jewelry and by some of the charred clothing. Ill health is said to have been the cause for the act.

ALEX S IS NOW A YEARLING

Russia Celebrates Birthday of Heir to Her Throne.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14, 7:40 p. m.—The first anniversary of the birth of the Grand Duke Alexis, heir to the Russian throne, was celebrated in a festive manner throughout Russia today. Banners are flying in all the streets and the capital is brilliantly illuminated tonight. All the Government offices, with the exception of the Foreign Office, were closed today and the Ministers of state departments and all persons whose rank entitled them to admission to court went to Peterhof to offer their felicitations to the Emperor and Empress and to participate in a special national mass. A statement is published in the Official Messenger today, announcing that the project for a national assembly had been laid before the Emperor for signature. The statement outlines the province of the new body, quoting the words of the project that "delegates of the people shall be summoned to participate in the preliminary study and discussion of progressive preparations, which go up through the council of the empire to the supreme, autocratic authority."

SHEA RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

AGAIN AT THE HEAD OF THE BROTHERHOOD OF TEAMSTERS.

PHILADELPHIA, August 13.—Despite the sentiment against President Cornelius P. Shea, which has been plainly manifested at various times during the convention of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, there were enough delegates favorable to his administration to secure his reelection. Contrary to expectations, Edwin Gould, who has been Shea's chief opponent, did not seek nomination. President Shea's only opponent was Daniel Furman of Chicago, president of the Truck Drivers' Union. President Shea defeated him by a vote of 125 to 123.

Edward L. Turley, secretary-treasurer, who was also opposed to the Shea administration, was defeated by Thomas L. Hughes of Chicago, 125 to 113. The seven vice-presidents, all of the Shea faction, were elected. Among them was Alexander Djea of San Francisco.

KILLED IN A WRECK

FREIGHT TRAIN IS WRECKED AT ROYAL GORGE.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 14.—A freight wreck is reported on the Rio Grande road in the vicinity of the Royal Gorge. Few particulars are known here as yet, but it is said that three men have been killed and the body of one has been taken from the wreck. Traffic is blocked. The accident occurred at about noon.

EXPLAINED.

Visitor—Why so?
"Because it's cheaper to boil the clothes and the dinner at the same time."

HAVE FAITH IN WITTE

Russia Gives Orders to Act on His Own Initiative.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14, 7:30 p. m.—The Foreign Office was kept open all day, but only for the receipt and handling of messages from the peace plenipotentiaries. It was said there that in view of Mr. Witte's failure to arrive at a full understanding, the Russian government desired that he go ahead and act on his own initiative during the remainder of the conference.

The final recognition of this condition causes all eyes to center on the New Hampshire town, and news received from it through the medium of the Associated Press is generally commented on and serves to keep the public officials aside from the highest foreign officers posted.

The government refrained from issuing any communication regarding the conference, and permitted the newspapers to publish the news received through the Associated Press.

The interest now centers in the Japanese response to M. Witte's note, which was delivered this morning.

RACERS ALMOST KILLED

Auto Driver Loses Control of Machine and Badly Injured.

ENVILLE RACE TRACK, Cleveland, Ohio, August 14.—In warming up for Saturday's races, Earl Kiser, one of the most famous auto racers in the country, ran into the fence.

He was hurled from his machine, striking on a post.

His left leg was reduced to pulp and will have to be amputated. He was otherwise bruised and cut. The car took fire and was partially destroyed.

This accident spoiled the free for all races. Kiser was Webb Jay's chief rival.

Kiser had just completed a mile in one minute and three seconds and was trying to pocket another car when he lost control of his machine and dashed into the fence.

BATTLESHIP TO BE WELL ARMORED

PHILADELPHIA, August 14.—The battleship Kansas will have a main belt of nickel steel armor, having a uniform thickness of nine inches throughout the magazine and engine space, tapering to four inches at the ends. Seven inch casemate armor will protect her between the main belt and main deck. This armor will extend to the limits of the magazines at both ends.

The twelve inch barbettes will extend from the deck to about four feet above the main deck. Between the gun and protective deck it will be uniform thickness of six inches. The eight inch barbettes will be six inches thick in front and four inches in the rear. The protective deck will extend from stem to stern, being flat amidships, but sloped at the sides and at each end. Her propelling power will consist of vertical twin screw, four cylinder, triple expansion type engine, combined horse power of 16,500. The ship is to be provided with an ice plant with a cooling capacity of three tons of ice daily, and an evaporating plant of 15,000 gallons capacity, and distilling apparatus capable of condensing 10,000 gallons of water a day.

STATESMEN RETURN FROM SOUTHAMPTON

NEW YORK, August 14.—United States Senator Allison and Congressman Cousins, of Iowa, arrived here on the steamer St. Louis from Southampton, Saturday.

ENVOYS BADLY TREATED

Russians and Japanese Suffering in New Hampshire.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 14.—Conditions here, so far as the arrangements for the comfort of the plenipotentiaries go, are far from satisfactory, and it is impossible not to notice the complaints heard on all sides.

The fact that foreigners do not live as Americans do has been overlooked by the hotel management, and little provision made for their personal comfort.

A group of foreigners were sitting on the main hall night, including in cooling drinks, when one of the hotel employees approached, and without the slightest warning turned out all the lights. An immediate protest was made, but the only reply was:

"Lights must be put out at 12:30."

It was one minute past that hour. Indignant at this treatment, one of the party, after some difficulty, found the key and turned on the lights.

One of the envoys, after working in his rooms until midnight, wishes something to eat, it is impossible for him to get it. The Russian mission was forced to leave the dining room because Mr. Witte could not find a room.

One of the most important members of the Russian mission has been forced to occupy a room without a bath, and he is not hesitating to let his dissatisfaction become known.

Mr. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, has been far from well, and Mr. Witte suffers from the heat and mosquitoes. Great waits were noticed on the forehead of one of the envoys yesterday, the bite of mosquitoes having poisoned him. Mr. Hanabusa, one of the Japanese commissioners arrived at the hotel shortly after 2 o'clock in an automobile with a suit case containing official papers. He at once began coding despatches. He would give no inkling of the events in the conference room. He appeared far from optimistic.

SOLACE COMES TO PORT

Six Hundred Arrive in Hold of the Vessel.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—The naval transport Solace came into port Saturday from Manila. On the way she called at Shanghai, Yokohama, Guam and Honolulu. In her cabin were 100 passengers, nearly all of whom were naval officers who have been relieved from duty with the ships of the Asiatic fleet. In the stowage were nearly 600 bluejackets and marines whose terms of enlistment have expired or are soon to expire, and who were brought home. Soon after leaving the Orient a large part of the provisions on board were found to be unfit for food, and until Honolulu was reached the men in the stowage were on short rations.

Soon after the vessel left Guam a stow-away was found. It was a boy about 16 years of age and he gave the name of Fred Smith. He claimed his home was in Australia, and that he ran away and stowed in a ship that took him to Manila. There he got aboard the Solace the day before she sailed, and he was aboard nearly a month before he was discovered. He had remained hidden in the coal bunkers and some of the firemen and coal passers supplied him with food.

TO TAKE PART IN SHOOT

SAN FRANCISCO, August 14.—Colonel Jones and seventeen stalwart members of the Hawaiian National Guard are at the Occidental Hotel. They arrived Saturday on the Solace from Honolulu and will leave for Seabright on next Monday, wherethey will enter the great shooting contest.

The Hawaiians who compose the team are as fine a body of men as can be found in any army, and they expect to make a creditable showing in competition with the crack shots of the army and members of other national guards.

This is the first time that some of them have been over here and they hope to combine some pleasure with their work.

HARRIMAN GOES TO FOREST

Head of Southern Pacific Company Goes for an Outing.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 14.—President E. H. Harriman has decided that he will take a genuine holiday, and he went Saturday with a party of the Southern Pacific officials to the Bohemian Club jink.

"We all intend to go and forget business," was the remark of Julius Kruttschnitt.

The party that went to the jinks consisted of Mr. Harriman, Julius Kruttschnitt, Chief Engineer William Hood, General Manager E. E. Galvin, Chief Surgeon Alsworth and L. P. Richardson. They took the 11 o'clock boat and Mr. Harriman, it is said, will give himself up unreservedly up to pleasure.

Mr. Harriman's first intention was to spend tomorrow at Del Monte, but the alluring promises of a good time at the grove made him forego his trip to the hotel, and he joined the rest of the officials in their merry-making.

Mrs. Harriman and her two daughters and two sons, however, went down to Del Monte, and will spend Sunday there and are expected to return on Monday morning.

ROBBER DID NOT STOP

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—When D. J. Anastasio, a restaurant man at 584 Hayes street, closed his place of business at 2 o'clock Saturday a burly stranger armed with a huge revolver approached him and demanded that the house be reopened.</

MANY TO TAKE UP THE LAND

Big Crowd Lines Up Before the North Platte Office.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., August 14.—A big crowd is lined up before the land office here for the opening of nearly 350,000 acres of land which has been forced in by cattlemen.

The fences have been torn down by order of the Government and the land is to be divided into homesteads of sections.

It is reported that cattlemen have been cutting much of the wild hay and that they are again trying to discourage homesteaders from entering upon the land. North Platte is filled with strangers.

Hundreds had to sleep outdoors last night and every available conveyance for getting to the land is being used.

JUBILEE OF JEWISH ORDER

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS THE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY ACROSS BAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 14.—The Alhambra Theater was thronged last night with the celebrants of the golden jubilee of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, so many being present that long before the program was begun further admission to the hall was denied. Prominent members of the lodge addressed the assemblage.

Since 1855 the Jews of San Francisco have been joined through this organization, and its growth and success were attested by the audience that was gathered to do honor to the order on its fiftieth anniversary.

In the opening remarks Past Grand President William Sanburg told of the work done since his connection with the society began, and he was greeted with a hearty welcome to the friends who were gathered to celebrate the occasion.

Grand President Hugo K. Asher made some witty remarks on "The Day We Celebrate," telling of the importance to the Jewish people of the anniversary. He explained the good the society was to the city and rendered a short historical sketch of the order since it was chartered.

In "The Destiny of the Order" Past Grand President Lucius L. Solomon discussed the future of the B'nai B'rith and of the benefit it will be to the race for which it was organized. Patriotic feelings were stirred by Otto Irving "Our Country," delivered by Otto Irving Weiss.

The following program was rendered at the theater:

Overture, "Jubilee" (Von Weber), orchestra; opening remarks, Past Grand President William Sanburg; address, "The Day We Celebrate," Grand President Hugo K. Asher; harp solo, "Chants and Anthems" (Furber), Mrs. John Marguerite; address, "The Destiny of the Order," Past Grand President Lucius L. Solomon; vocal solo, "The Day We Celebrate" (Verdi), Signora Sylvia Puerari; tenor solo, "La Donna e Mobile" (from Rigoletto), J. E. Vescio; orchestra; "Nidre" (Arthur Weiser, harp and orchestra; oration, "Our Country," Grand President Otto Irving Weiss; vocal solo, "Our Country," Signora Sylvia Puerari and J. E. Vescio; sextet from "Lucia di Lammermoor," orchestra; finale, orchestra.

GOES AFTER THE CRAFTERS

BERKELEY PASTOR DOES NOT SPARE THE MEN WHO TAKE MONEY.

SANTA CRUZ, August 14.—The annual Unitarian grove meeting, held in Isabel Grove here yesterday, was a great success. At the morning service Rev. C. W. Stone of Berkeley, local secretary for the Pacific Coast, preached a strong sermon on the evils of graft in American public and business life. He declared the grafter to be the greatest foe to the public welfare today. He said that this country needs officials who will not only steal themselves, but will not let others steal. He also condemned Russia as a Christian nation warring with an pagan Japan, and said it was doubtful which was really the more Christian nation of the two.

At the afternoon meeting, which was held in a beautiful grove of oak trees, C. A. Murock of San Francisco, Rev. C. W. Stone of Berkeley, Dean Wilbur of the Oakland Theological School and Samuel Leask of this city spoke. There was also a beautiful musical service.

It is on foot to enlarge the scope of this annual meeting by having the Chautauque meetings at San Francisco each summer. Mr. Stone inaugurated the movement, which is meeting with much favor.

A. L. Aste claimed $2,000 for $1480 and Mad Mullah for $2040 out of two races the other day at Saratoga. Frank Brown also acquired a fine origin for $2,400 by the same process.

UNION MEN GIVE TALKS

Plans For Labor Day Celebration Are Discussed.

At the latest meeting of the Miscellaneous Trades' Council, Hermann Hollander, of the Cooks and Waiters' Alliance, No. 31, was chosen to fill the place of vice-president for the remainder of the term. The place has just been vacated by the withdrawal of A. Cairn, who had been the delegate from the Electrical Workers.

Since the Miscellaneous Council amalgamated with the Provision Trades Council several months ago the organization has been growing rapidly. In importance, all the unions affiliated with it have appointed committees to work with it and the Central Council for the celebration of Labor Day.

At the meeting of the Cooks and Waiters' Alliance, which was held last Friday evening.

Arrangements for the celebration of Labor Day by the unions affiliated with the Central Labor Council are going forward rapidly. It has been decided to have C. E. Schmidt, the first vice-president of the International Butchers' Union, make the speech of the day. An invitation had been extended to W. F. Sullivan, an international officer in the Electrical Workers' Brotherhood, to deliver an address also, but it will be impossible for him to come, as he starts East this week to attend the convention of his union.

The local branch of the Electrical Workers has delegated the following committee to act with the Central Council in preparing for the picnic at Sacco Park, which will be the chief part of the celebration: E. S. Farrer, W. N. Conney and L. T. Lewis.

The outing will last all day and far into the evening. Special arrangements for lighting the park with electricity have been made by the Electric Light and Power Company. The large pavilion at the park will be devoted to dancing, for which two or more first-class bands will be engaged. Athletic games, races, and a grand tug-of-war are also planned. The officers of the unions have entered teams to compete for the handsome prize offered for winning the tug.

Following are the members of the committee of the Central Council in charge of the arrangements: W. Ellison, J. F. Sale, Ben Litzenschein, A. C. Kruger, William Nisbet, J. O'Brien, R. W. W. C. Petry, J. E. Reboil, P. C. Weber and W. M. Alden.

NATIVES IN SAD STATE

THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SUBSIST ENTIRELY ON FISH.

TACOMA, August 14.—The revenue cutter Perry, which arrived at Juneau yesterday from a cruise extending to the northern extremity of the Aleutian Islands, brings the news that the natives on the Adak and Attu islands are in a desperate condition, subsisting on fish only, while their clothing supply is almost exhausted.

The Perry delivered to the natives seven boxes of clothing sent by the National Ladies' Aid Society. Disease has so decimated the Attu tribe that seventy-five Indians only remain. The officers of the Perry predict that within a few years the famous Attu basketry will be almost extinct.

The Perry went to the Aleutians under special orders to guard the islands from illegal fishing by the Japanese. Four vessels were caught in the harbors, where they had established salting stations. Their camps were burned and their ships ordered to leave.

Fish Commissioner Kutcherson of Washington, who made the trip, asserts that the Japanese are doing much illegal fishing. He will recommend that the cutter be stationed in the Aleutians to protect American fisheries.

HE WOULD ELOPE WITH NEGRESS

PROMINENT YOUNG MAN IN SOUTH CAUSED A SENSATION.

SAN BERNARDINO, August 14.—Riverside's wild and riotous set has been scandalized by the recent eccentricities of George Porter, the seventeen-year-old son of wealthy parents, who became enamored of a handsome negress of German-African parents.

When it was discovered that he planned to elope with and marry her, his parents caused his arrest and he was thrown into jail, charged with being a common law adulterer.

Porter has had every advantage, is well educated and of manly appearance. Over six months ago he met the negress on the street and was fascinated, not realizing at the time her parentage. A month later he disappeared, and for months nothing was heard from him.

His friends declare that he went away to break the strange spell this woman had cast upon him. Since his return he has proved that his absence did not lessen the attachment for he has been constantly with her, and when the position of his parentage was a stern form he contemplated an elopement.

Tomorrow he will be examined before Judge J. S. Noyes, and probably committed to Whittier.

DR. LEE IS IN TROUBLE

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.—Dr. B. Brooks Lee, formerly of San Francisco, and at present residing at 907 Market street in this city, was arrested yesterday by City Detective Joe Day, who alleges that Lee is a notorious crook and race track tout known as "Tug Allen." Dr. Lee is exceedingly wrought over the affair and states emphatically that the city sleuth has made an error and promises to make it exceedingly interesting for him. Lee is the man who was accused of having placed Tom Sharkey, the sailor pugilist, in such a condition that he would appear to have been fouled by Bob Fitzsimmons in their manly fight in San Francisco, about seven years ago. When questioned here Lee said: "I have met Mr. Sharkey and I look as if he had been fouled. How? Well, that is something I do not care to reveal, but I will assure that it was done that is enough. There is no doubt Fitzsimmons was entitled to the decision and did not foul Sharkey, I got $1000 for the fight played in the affair." Dr. R. Gates, formerly a member of the San Francisco police force and later a private detective of Seattle, was taken into police custody at the same time and ordered to leave. A bit of old craps is the very best thing for dusting one's gowns.

FATAL FIGHT ON CRUISER

Officers and Men Watch Fighter Battle to the Death.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—After a prize-fight on board the converted cruiser Yankee, which was referred by a lieutenant of the United States Navy, of Monte Christo, San Domingo, on July 6, Barney Cohen, a coal passer on the Yankee, died as the result of punishment he had received. Charles Johnson, a negro coal passer on the Olympia, Cohen's opponent, was acquitted by a court of inquiry, which rendered a verdict of "accidental death."

Johnson was the best middleweight fighter on the Olympia and Cohen had defeated all the men of his class on the Yankee. Rivalry between the men led up to a ten-round bout for a prize of $50. A squared ring was built on the deck of the Olympia, and the fight was refereed. When the fight started 600 men and at least a dozen of the officers were at the ring side.

After the first round it was apparent that Johnson had Cohen at his mercy. In the eighth round Cohen, without being struck a blow, sank to the deck while Lieutenant Pettigill counted the final knock-out.

Cohen died the same day, and an autopsy revealed that he had sustained a fracture of the brain. He was buried with naval honors.

NATIVES IN SAD STATE

THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SUBSIST ENTIRELY ON FISH.

TACOMA, August 14.—The revenue cutter Perry, which arrived at Juneau yesterday from a cruise extending to the northern extremity of the Aleutian Islands, brings the news that the natives on the Adak and Attu islands are in a desperate condition, subsisting on fish only, while their clothing supply is almost exhausted.

The Perry delivered to the natives seven boxes of clothing sent by the National Ladies' Aid Society. Disease has so decimated the Attu tribe that seventy-five Indians only remain. The officers of the Perry predict that within a few years the famous Attu basketry will be almost extinct.

The Perry went to the Aleutians under special orders to guard the islands from illegal fishing by the Japanese. Four vessels were caught in the harbors, where they had established salting stations. Their camps were burned and their ships ordered to leave.

Fish Commissioner Kutcherson of Washington, who made the trip, asserts that the Japanese are doing much illegal fishing. He will recommend that the cutter be stationed in the Aleutians to protect American fisheries.

Oakland Boy Killed at Lafayette by Fractious Colt.

MARTINEZ, August 14.—Trying to break a young and fractious colt to harness, near Lafayette, resulted yesterday in the death of Frank Seifert of 2339 Peralta street, Oakland. Together with Thomas Estesa and Frank Hornacek, both of whom live at 458 Fourteenth street, San Francisco, he volunteered to tame the animal, which is the property of J. H. Kohl, a farmer near the Fish Ranch. While driving the colt it bolted, throwing out of the wagon all three occupants. Seifert was caught in a wheel and dragged for some distance. When picked up he was dead. His two companions escaped with minor injuries. The trio were camping on Kohl's ranch at the time. Seifert's remains were taken in charge by Coroner Curry of Martinez.

DR. HOBART DOES GOOD WORK ## HAS BUILT UP THE CHURCH SINCE HE CAME HERE.

Rev. C. H. Hobart is in the third month of his pastorate at the Calvary Baptist Church. Though he came at a time when many of his congregation were leaving the city on their vacation, he has held the interest and developed the strength of the church and Sunday School to a very gratifying degree.

One young man, Mr. Sutherland, a charter member of the church, has been attending the Baptist Seminary in Chicago, and has returned to spend a few weeks in his old home. A council has been called to meet next Thursday afternoon and evening in the Calvary Church to ordain him to the full work of the gospel ministry.

HE BURNS UP THE MAIL

STRANGE STORY IS TOLD ABOUT THE POSTMASTER OF GOLDFIELD.

NEW YORK, August 14.—L. H. Crossman of Goldfield, Nev., who is in this city, says the Postmaster at Goldfield has his little bonfire every day after the office closes. Persons who subscribe for papers are allowed to gather around and see them burn. Crossman says he threatened to complain to the Postoffice Department in Washington, but the postmaster referred him to a letter posted in his office. This letter purported to be from an assistant in the Washington department, and authorized the Goldfield postmaster to destroy all but first-class mail by fire.

Crossman says he asked the Goldfield official that if he wouldn't let him go into the pile of papers each day and pick out his paper, but the postmaster wouldn't listen to this. The office was established to handle the mail in Goldfield, and if it couldn't, why nobody else should.

Persons at the New York Postoffice when questioned about this today said they knew some Western postmasters were pretty hot stuff, but they didn't believe any of them ever obtained permission from Washington to burn the mail.

Swamp-Land Reclamation Scheme.

The owners of the unreclaimed swamp land in California have projected a scheme for their reclamation at Government, State and private expense. The scheme was launched by the Reclamation Convention held in San Francisco, something over a year ago, very largely under the auspices of the "Promotion Committee," the executive officer of which became president of the Swamp-Land Reclamation Association, formed by resolution of that convention.

As ultimately developed this scheme had for its object the enlistment of State and Federal aid in the work of reclamation. The Government was to be brought into the enterprise on the plea that a proper reclamation of the swamp-lands would rectify the channels of the rivers, scour their beds, control their flood planes and generally conserve navigation. The State was to be enlisted on the theory that it is a good thing to create private property by the expenditure of public money as a method of creating taxable property. The owners of the swamp-land were also to be contributors, and the proportion to be contributed by each of the three sources of contribution to the entire expense was one-third.

The public should be made aware of the conditions which lie behind this scheme. The area of unreclaimed swamp land in California amounts to nearly 1,200,000 acres. This land is all in private ownership. The Reclamation Association secured at the hands of the State a reconnaissance survey of the situation at the hands of very competent engineers. They have reported, and their report, now a current document in public literature, establishes the cost of the perfect reclamation of this 1,200,000 acres of land at $24,000,000. It follows then that the proposition involves the payment out of the treasury of the State and the Government of $16,000,000, to be added to a contribution from the owners of the property of $8,000,000. That is to say, this private land is to be reclaimed at a cost to its owners of $8,000,000. Sixteen millions of dollars of public money is to be applied to the creation of values as a subsidy, a donation, a present, to the owners of the property.

The current argument in favor of the scheme is to the effect that the 1,200,000 acres of land, when reclaimed, would be worth at least $100,000,000, and since the land is in private ownership after its reclamation, and since after the conferment of this stupendous value, it would still remain in private ownership, the conclusion is deducible, divested of its diplomatic concealments that it is proposed to create $100,000,000 of value to be owned by private individuals at a cost to them of $8,000,000, and at a cost to the State and Government, neither of which will share in the ownership, of $16,000,000. Our friends, the swamp-land owners, are to reap a dollar benefit by the expenditure of eight cents!

The means by which the present owners of the swamp lands became possessed of this property may be disclosed by simple narration. The Government presented the swamp lands to the State of California for the purpose of securing its reclamation, and the State received the land charged with this trust. After many legislative experiments the existing law was finally evolved, found in Secs. 3474-5-6 and 7 of the Political Code. The law permits the formation of "reclamation districts." The State sells the land to the owner or owners in such districts. The purchase money is paid to the Treasurer of the county in which such swamp-land district is located. Then the owners of the land in the district proceed with its reclamation. When they have spent a sum equal to two dollars for each acre of land in the district they receive State patents for all of the swamp land in the district, and receive back all the money they have paid into the county treasury on behalf of the State. Suppose a district comprises 10,000 acres, and the sum of $20,000 had been expended upon the reclamation of 1,000 acres. The preliminary formalities being duly complied with, patents to the entire 10,000 acres, and all the money paid on account of the purchase of the land in the original instance, are given to the purchaser. In this way the reclamation of 1,000 acres gives the owner, or owners, of the 10,000 acres title to the whole, and they thereby receive the title to 9,000 acres of unreclaimed land. And it is this unreclaimed land, obtained in this way, that the owners are asking shall be reclaimed for the greater part at public expense!

The condition of land holdings as relates to the swamp lands will be exceedingly interesting reading at the present time.

Sutter county contains 97,764 acres of swamp land, assessed to private owners. Of this total Ed. Wineman owns 22,765 acres. J. W. Browning owns 9,840 acres in Sutter county, and 400 in Yolo, making a total ownership of 10,240 acres. Wineman and Browning own thirty-three per cent of all the swamp lands in Sutter county. Here two individual swamp-land owners own 32,000 of the 97,000 acres assessed in Sutter county. If these lands are to be worth, as estimated, $100 an acre when reclaimed, Mr. Wineman will enjoy property value amounting to $2,276,500, at a cost to himself of $758,833. And then we will have the spectacle of a single holding comprising 22,765 acres, its larger value conferred upon it by the expenditure of public money, displacing settlement and population;

But the list may be further continued. The Sutter Development Company has 7,920 acres; Charles Silva, 6,000 acres. Decker, Jewett Land Company, 4,280 acres; Northern California Land Company, 4,075 acres. And then down through 3,000, 2,000 acres the list might be extended for fifteen additional names. The holdings of this additional fifteen names would aggregate 26,000 acres.

In Yolo county 150,253 acres are found on the assessment roll. The names, and the acreages set opposite, disclose a condition analogous to that found in Sutter county: J. H. Glide owns 19,840 acres, Wm. Thomas, et al., are assessed upon an acreage of 15,200; G. W. Chapman owns 12,310 acres. Then follows in the list quantities of 9,000 acres, 8,000, 7,000, 4,000, 3,000, 2,000—these figures being repeated opposite a long list of names.

Taking the ten largest holdings in the two counties, and we have the following:

Ed. Wineman.....	22,765 acres
J. H. Glide.....	19,840 acres
Wm. Thomas, et al.....	15,200 acres
G. W. Chapman.....	12,310 acres
J. W. Browning.....	10,240 acres
D. N. Hershey.....	8,360 acres
Henry Cowell.....	8,360 acres
Fair Estate.....	7,420 acres
Sutter Development Company.....	7,920 acres
Alice H. Tubbs.....	4,760 acres

The total of these holdings aggregate 117,715 acres, an average of 11,771 acres to each. And let it be remembered that this relates to but two of the swamp-land counties.

And so the Government and the State are asked to contribute two dollars for every dollar contributed by these people, to create ten lordly holdings, worth $1,777,150 each! Here is a process of creating millionaires at public expense. Here is a deliberately proposed method of perpetuating land monopoly in California, and thereby displacing population. The scheme is worthy the genius of a Rockefeller, or a Pierpont Morgan, and is one of the most intrepid "get-rich-quick" devices that has ever been proposed in cold blood to the public.

The steps of the history of these swamp lands make a remarkable exhibit. The Government of the United States presented the swamp lands to the State of California on condition that they be reclaimed. The State of California, so far from reclaiming them, presented them absolutely, without any value received, to their present owners, and the present owners now ask the original donor to the State, not only to condone the default of good faith and the breach of common honesty, but to contribute one-third of the cost of reclamation as a bonus to the present owners of the land—as a golden reward for their failure to reclaim; and the State which was in common decency bound to observe the conditions of the gift from the government, "stands by consenting."

There really seems nothing else for it. The esteemed Bee of Sacramento will have to blacklist the Argonaut for printing the productions of the Ruef-Schmitz syndicate, for that entertaining and observant weekly takes the same view of the San Francisco political situation, practically speaking, as does our over-the-bay correspondent "The Knave." So the Argonaut must be pilloried as a conspirator against the public peace and the Sacramento Bee, and be advertised in the columns of the Winters Express and the Woodland Democrat as belonging to the N. G. class. Dear, dear, how murder will out, and how swift and perspicacious is our astute Sacramento contemporary in smelling a mouse and nipping it in the bud.

Soldiers in National Parks.

The Visalia Times objects to the presence of the military in the national parks, but gives no reasonable ground for its objection. The soldiers do not interfere with anybody who acts properly or in accordance with law in the parks. They do not prevent the government from building roads nor do they damage the natural beauties over which they stand guard. They merely protect the parks from spoliation and unlawful invasion. Their presence is naturally distasteful to the nomadic shepherds and lawless cattle owners who desire to graze their flocks in the parks, and that fact appears to furnish the reason for the anxiety manifested in certain quarters to have the soldiers removed. Ever since the parks were created the sheep and cattle men have been trying to obtain from the government the privilege of grazing their flocks in them, but their efforts have proved uniformly unsuccessful. At different times and in different places drovers have invaded the parks with their flocks and herds in defiance of the law, only to be promptly ejected by the military stationed there for that purpose. The studied attempt to turn the parks into free ranges for the stockmen is a conclusive argument in favor of keeping soldiers there to guard against lawless depredations. The average nomadic stockman would graze his herds in the White House grounds if he could do so with impunity. He has no respect for private or public rights, and cares about as much for the beauties of nature as the devil does about holy water. The military arm of the government has alone proved effective in preventing his marauding invasion of the national parks.

Dr. Baird's plan of "informally" investigating Dr. Cool's charges against the majority of the Dental Board to ascertain whether they justified a formal investigation is decidedly unique. An informal investigation, the proceedings of which were not recorded, must of necessity be an abortive proceeding. In this instance, it has all the appearance of an attempt to stifle a public hearing and to keep all mention of Cool's charges out of the records of the Dental Board. There is no other way to account for the absence of any reference in the Board's minutes to the so-called "informal" investigation. We should say the whole thing is decidedly informal—not to say suspicious.

The statement that the manager of the New York Central Railroad stopped a special train to pick up Eddie Foy because the vaudeville artist threatened to make a song about the road and sing it all over the United States proves that corporations can have compassion even if they are soulless. The manager of the New York Central deserves the thanks of the public for averting the threatened infliction. But perhaps the story is only one of Eddie's advertising yarns.

A BORROWFUL STORY.

A bachelor of forty grew tired of single life. He looked around a little and then annexed a wife. She was of a type that's common, was very nice and prim, and filled with an ambition to have things neat for him.

And so, soon after marriage, he found all things arranged. From which it's very certain his mode of life was changed; His clothes were put in order, he found his slippers, too, With greatest ease at evening when the repast was through.

Upon his varied garments the buttons soon appeared, And with a frequent dusting his divers hats were cheered. Oh, if I were to tell you the whole, 'twould take an age, And make these simple verses just o'er the seventh page.

But did the man enjoy it? Ah, no! I grieve to say, He peaked and pined most plainly, was very far from gay, The strange, unheard-of neatness so preyed upon his mind He died at six one evening and left it all behind.

But ere he died he murmured to parties standing near, "I want this short inscription, and want it chiseled clear: 'He had a wife whose goodness 'twas very hard to match, And yet she killed her husband with neatness and dispatch!'" —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A FEW BITS OF FUN.

Little Stories and Verses Made to Drive Away Blues.

The President of the United States sat upon a soap box on the off shore of Oyster Bay. Around him gathered the three junior Teddies Roosevelt, the four or five Roosevelt cousins and a few other boys. "Ted," said the president, "there are any other animals that you would like to have included. I can deliver the goods. Now, wouldn't you like to have a Dakota antelope thrown in for good count, and a Texas buffalo, and say boys—how would you like me to put in a Spanish? I've brought down all of them with my trusty rifle, you know."

The President gazed meditatively into the dying embers of the camp fire and paused for reply.

"Say, pop," said Archie, "didn't you ever tackle a bird?"

"What, Archibald?"

"A bird, pop—how about that Santiago Round Robin?" —Portland Oregonian.

Cures Sciatica.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment; the first application giving me first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Wishart Drug Store.

A FALSE STORY.

Alingworth R. Spofford, chief assistant librarian of the Congressional library, maintains, despite his 80 years, an interest in current letters.

"Fiction," said Mr. Spofford the other day, "is the chief product of the press today, and while some of this fiction—notably the work of Joseph Conrad—is beautiful and perennial, much of it is as false as..."

Mr. Spofford smiled.

As false as the story of Napoleon and the one-armed soldier, he went on.

"Napoleon seeing this one-armed soldier on the street of Paris one day,

BY MR. ALFRED AUSTIN.

(Poem by the Poet Laureate Welcoming Ambassador Whitelaw Reid, read by Sir Henry Irving at the Pilgrim's reception, London, June 23.)

To England's shore hath come full many a guest,

Seeking for safety only Freedom gives,

Monarchs dethroned and Rulers dispossessed,

Foes foiled in war and patriot fugitives

But never from the young self-governed Land

Hath visitor come, save willingly and free.

With hand outstretched to grasp the outstretched hand,

As brothers greet, when one comes home from sea.

New once again our Western kindred send

One whom grave thought and lofty speech adorn.

Not for whose sake alone we hail him friend,

But for the manly land where he was born.

The April swallow circling round our caves,

Fresh with the buoyancy of wind and foam,

Thrills us with joy, with sorrow when it leaves,

As though it scarcely knew which was its home.

Our homes be one, wherever we abide,

Our Yours, Yours Ours, a free-given timeless lease,

Bound by no fragile parchments, but allied

By fearless love of World-embracing Peace.

THE STALEY JUDGE.

Admiral Schley told in Philadelphia on the Fourth of July a story about a judge.

"This judge," he said, "was sitting on the case of a man charged with putting a off fireworks illegally. An interested, dignified, reserved sort of judge. He laid a good deal of stress on ceremony, pomp, and display, and in his court there was always an abundance of reverence, as in a church."

"Well, as the judge was trying this case in his usual stately way, the prisoner in the dock put his hand in his pocket, drew out a large ham sandwich, and began to eat calmly."

"Horror-stricken, the judge shouted: 'Put that away!'"

"The prisoner wiped his mouth with the back of his hand."

"I am putting it away as fast as I can," he said."

Does A Girl Really Know When She is In Love?
Do You Know How to Wear Shoes?

FOR THE WOMEN

Smart Girls are Always Looking for Novelties.
Something for the Psychologist

DO ALL GIRLS KNOW WHEN THEY ARE IN LOVE HERE'S SOMETHING FOR PSYCHOLOGISTS TO CONSIDER

"Have you not heard it said full oft, a woman's may doth stand for naught?"
The bard who fished in the river Avon and who is supposed to have stolen sheep "by way of diversion" had no clearer understanding of the ways of woman than the woman of the East who wrote the appended words.
"Do girls know when they are in love?" is the question this woman of the frostbitten country that lies beyond the Rockies, asks. This is what she says in answer:

"Ask any girl who has had half a dozen offers of marriage and she will confess to you that there were at least two over which she wavered—unwilling to say no, and still more unwilling to say yes.

"In nine cases out of ten the chances for and against were so even that it was only a mere accident, or what seemed to her like one, that turned the scale and made her cast the die.

"Many girls suffer absolute torture in trying to know their own minds in such cases as these. It is perhaps as well for them that men quite fail to understand their hesitation and its reason, or the stronger will would at once bring about a decision, and perhaps there might be even more unhappy marriages than there already are.

TOO UNCERTAIN.

"How many a girl, as it is, fails to know in her own mind till the wedding ring is fairly on, and the honeymoon is on the wane? How often, alas! she knows it then, and wonders she could have been so deluded as to think a life passed in John's society could ever make her happy.

"Sometimes, again, she gets to know it quite as sadly. When she has refused Arthur and sent him away sorrowing to a distant country, she sometimes discovers that, after all, the world without him is a dreary waste, and nothing but his love is worth desiring. Then, as time goes on, she reads in the papers the notice of his marriage to another woman, she spends her strength in one heartbroken, hopeless cry:

"Oh, why didn't I—didn't I know my mind when I had the chance?"

NOT ALWAYS DESIRABLE.

"But does it ever happen that she does know it when the knowledge can do her any good? Oh, yes; fortunately she does. Sometimes she knows it so soon and so certainly that her only agonized apprehension is about him; whether his mind is the same as hers, and whether he means to give her the chance of being the happiest woman in the whole world.

"Sometimes the knowledge of her own mind is such a source of pain and anxiety that she would gladly be ignorant of it, and able to deceive herself as to what her real feelings are.

"She knows it when the right man comes. There is a right man somewhere for every woman, though she doesn't always find him; but when she does she knows her own mind with a certainty that doesn't require her to consult anybody whatsoever upon the subject."

PROPER SHOES ARE THE THING FOR THE SMART WOMEN

There is one valuable addition to style and daintiness with which women of these days do not take enough trouble. It is not unusual to see a beautiful toilette spoiled by coarse and ill-shaped shoes, which destroy all the charming harmony of the entire costume.

The necessity of being well shod, of having a neat foot and a good gait has been recognized ever since people began to wear coverings for their feet.

Even among the Egyptians of old we find foolish extravagance in the elegance and cost of footwear. Sandals were made of bark, but those made for the rich and dandified were fitted with golden straps and embroidered with pearls.

In Athens and in Rome footwear indicated the growth of luxury, and paintings found in the ruins of Herculaneum show dancers shod in style worthy of emulation by those of today. It is known that Grecian women were accustomed to twenty-two different styles of sandals more or less ornamented with gems and silver.

This fashion was kept up till well toward the close of the thirteenth century, and because of the amount of embroidery shoes looked heavy and unwieldy. Then came the ridiculous pointed shoes, with toes so long that it was customary for the dukes of the day to attach the tips of their shoes to their knees by short chains of silver or gold. These pointed shoes were succeeded by shoes with wide, flat toes, so that fashion was evidently just the same then as today, when sharp and square toes change places in the mode every few years.

Heels were first used in the sixteenth century, and were devised to give room for added ornamentation of embroidery and jewels. The buckled Venetian shoes also offered an added opportunity for expensive decoration, and some of the shoes of that type were fine examples of the art.

The shoes worn by the women of the time of Louis XV were regular instruments of torture, and anyone who takes the trouble to investigate the styles shown in the museum at Cluny will wonder how the footgear of the eighteenth century ever became fashionable.

The shoemakers' art of today consists in concealing undue length of foot or undue size without in any way confining the foot or causing the least discomfort. There is nothing in worse taste than to try to make the foot small out of proportion to the size of the person it must support.

The woman who sees her own foot only from the arch does not know how ridiculous the high heel makes her look. Put a pair of high heeled shoes on a table with the heels toward you, and then put alongside of them a pair of shoes with sensible, safe, comfortable heels, and it won't take you long to see that the beauty of the French heel is not what it is cracked up to be.

The high heel distorts the foot, throws the whole body out of position, spoils the gait and is generally dangerous.

No Chinese girl was ever more helpless than the wearer of high heels, and the shoemaker of centuries ago who tortured the feet of the grande dame to make them appear beautiful never devised a more painful, ungainly and unhealthy covering for the feet.

HOW MEN AND WOMEN DIFFER

MEN—	WOMEN—
Are more ingenious than women.	Memorize and retain memory more readily than men.
Are more inclined to be frank.	Are more easily embarrassed than men.
Devote more time to study.	Derive greater pleasure from study.
Have a greater variety of sentiments.	Are more affected by omens and superstitions.
Are more apt to be habitually contented.	Are more influenced by their emotions.
Are more sensitive regarding other people's opinion of them.	Have more intimate friends than men.
Are more affectionate, sympathetic and demonstrative in affection.	Show greater physical effects from emotion.
Are more able to concentrate their minds upon one subject.	Their minds form associations more quickly—i. e., ideas follow each other more rapidly.
More frequently have illusions and hallucinations.	More frequently have presentiments.
Have greater social inclinations.	Rely more upon religious judgment in deciding conduct.
Are better informed on scientific subjects.	Have stronger religious beliefs.
Have more acute sense of taste and smell.	Are better informed on literary subjects.
Have keener sight for detection of objects.	Excel in keenness of hearing.
Excel in rapidity and accuracy of movement.	Have keener sight for recognition of colors.
Have a more marked tendency to physical activity.	Excel in manual dexterity.

LOVE OF A MAN AND A MAID

There lived a man who loved a maid.
(Not well and wisely as do we).
Saw friends estranged and hope betrayed.
And little heed or care had he.
Love-blind, he battled on; and she—
She felt, as only woman can:
Scorn for the wretched dole he paid—
He loved a maid who loved a man.

Her fancy fell on one who went
To find Love further down the street.
And all her woman-days were spent
Heart-hungry, stifled, incomplete.
And all her heart beneath his feet
In dumb surrender humbly laid.
He saw nor heeded what she meant—
She loved a man who loved a maid.

Close by her casement did she list,
A tremble as his step drew nigh;
And as he went toward his tryst
She watched him with a wistful eye.
Then, turning with a weary sigh,
She clasped imploring hands and prayed
And mused on all her life had missed—
She loved a man who loved a maid.

L'ENVOI.

He loved a maid who loved a man,
And spent his treasure unpaid;
She gave as only woman can,
She loved a man who loved a maid.

—The Minstrel, in Town Topics.

SOME RECIPES

FOR THE WOMEN

RICE PUDDING.

One quart of milk, one-half cup of rice. Wash rice, put in milk, four tablespoons of sugar and teaspoon of salt and one-half nutmeg. Put in oven and bake slowly for an hour or more. It should be creamy when taken out of oven. A few raisins may be added.

ASPARAGUS SOUP.

Wash two bunches of asparagus and cut in small pieces, put to cook in a quart of boiling water and cook till perfectly tender, when there should remain a pint of liquor. Turn into a colander and rub it all through except the hard portion. Season and add one cup cream and one pint milk. Boil a few minutes. Delicious!

BREADED TOMATOES.

Butter pudding dish, put layer of crumbs, layer of tomatoes, little salt, pepper, small pieces of butter and a light sprinkling of sugar, etc. Have crumbs on top. If there is not liquor enough with tomatoes add hot water.

PRESERVED BERRIES.

Allow two-thirds of a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit. Put the sugar into a preserving kettle, with just water enough to prevent its burning. Dissolve the sugar as quickly as possible. When the syrup is hot put in the berries, cook about ten minutes, skim them out carefully. Let the syrup simmer fifteen minutes, then pour over berries. Fill jars full.

FILLET OF BEEF.

Here's a new way to prepare a fillet of beef:
Cut some nice slices from a fillet of beef, about an inch thick, sprinkle with pepper and salt, flour and fry them on both sides in hot butter.
Cut some carrots up into fancy shapes, boil them for a quarter of an hour, drain them, and put them into a saucepan with a piece of butter, pepper and salt; then add a small teaspoonful of oil, and let the carrots cook till they are done; last of all add the yolks of two eggs well beaten and a little chopped parsley.

Serve this in the center of the dish with fillets neatly arranged around.

CANNED PEAS.

Shell peas and lay in cold water for an hour, then boil until tender, but not broken, in salted water. Drain out the peas and return the liquid to the fire. Pack the peas in heated jars, and bring the liquid to a boil. Fill jars to overflowing with the boiling liquid, screw on the tops and seal.

GIRLS WANT

GLOVES THAT WASH

Washable gloves have become absolutely indispensable to the summer girl. Not only do they save her hands from the ravages of the burning sun without inducing perspiration, but they are always immaculately fresh and clean. Each night the pair she has worn during the day gets its tub bath in warm soapsuds and is dry and ready for use the following day.

Fabric gloves, whether in linen or linen mesh, are so skillfully woven now that they have lost all of the scratchy feeling which has long been their objectionable feature. The girl who is peculiarly sensitive to this irritation will find linen gloves lined with the most supple of China silk.

Fashionable shades, such as old rose and old blue, are lined with check silk or silk embroidered with polka dots or tiny flowers. Linen mesh gloves, so popular during the warm months last year, will be more than ever in evidence this coming summer, and the stitchings on the back will show most elaborate handwork in self-tone of contrasting shade.

THE STAY-AT-HOME LOQUITOR.

The ship goes free on the open sea,
And the light waves dance in a perfect glee;
The skies, they are soft, and the sailors aloft
Are full to the limit with polities!
(But what in the deuce is it all for me?)

The breeze sweeps over the island fair,
And it cools the bosoms and blows the hair
Of the little maids, as they sit in the shade
Of the tadd palm tree of the bamboo rare!
(But where do I come in, stranger, where?)

The fish are biting within the streamers,
And the trees are drooping with golden dreams;
And the light canoes that off capsize
Glide to and fro in the sunset gleams!
(Which is totally foreign to me, me-seems!)

But island and ships and maids I sing,
And the fish and the fishermen homeward bring
For the season they fit, and why puzzle the wit
For a subject with maybe a dissonant hint?
(For still the conventional stuff's the thing!)

MUSICAL EVENTS ARE PLANNED

MISS COPE ENTERTAINS THIS EVENING—OTHER AFFAIRS OF INTEREST.

Enjoying their trip immensely and are at present in Yellowstone Park.

Among the recent guests at Del Monte were Secretary of Commerce Victor H. Metcalf, Mrs. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prather.

H. J. Mohr of Mt. Eden took a course in jurisprudence at the Summer School in Berkeley.

SKIRT LININGS GROWING FULLER

PARIS.—Wider than ever are the petticoats and skirt linings of the present season. Underskirts were very flaring last year, but the fuller of last summer's models is but scant in comparison with the petticoats now necessary in midday's outfit.

For a cloth street dress a dark petticoat is, of course, best, but this skirt must now be made either of figured brocade or taffeta, fitting well over the hips, while at the knees is added a double flounce which at its hem should be anywhere from five to eight yards in width. While the inner flounce is of plain black or white taffeta, according to the color of the skirt, the outside flounce is trimmed with tucks and insertions of lace as elaborately as desired. One extremely pretty petticoat was of black and white striped silk, or rather, white silk with a broad black stripe. While the flounce was of white taffeta trimmed with rows of Chantilly entre deux and bands of black velvet ribbon. There were four rows of the two-inch insertion with lace edging at the end of the flounce. Each row of lace was equally distant from the one above and between each band of lace were three rows of black velvet, the top one a half inch, the lower a full inch in width. Under this flounce was a plain flounce of white taffeta the same width as the outside. With a petticoat of this sort no skirt can possibly cling in about the ankles.

Now that short skirts are so generally worn the greatest attention must be given to underskirts. They must fit perfectly, be just the right length, and, above all, must be very wide about the feet. With gowns of thinner materials, as linen or muslin, everything depends upon the petticoat, so that it is every bit as important that it be full and perfectly made as that the gown itself should be of the latest fashion. Silk skirts are almost obligatory with every kind of dress, or at any rate there should be a detachable flounce for each muslin and lace petticoat. Unless all the gowns are of identical the same length each dress must have its own particular petticoat. Lawn petticoats must be especially full this year to be in any way possible, and not only must the flounce be unusually wide, but, as said above, there should be also a silk flounce which, buttoning on to the skirt, may easily be taken off when the skirt or flounce are to be cleaned or laundered.

Cording, while attractive and helping to keep a skirt well out, is still not at all sensible, for a silk skirt will cut there almost immediately. In purchasing a silk petticoat the first thing to look out for is that there is sufficient width to the flounce. An elaborately corded skirt should not be glanced at a second time, but tucks wear well, although the plain flounce will last longer than any.

Two-letter monogram belt buckles may be round ready-made.

SPORTS

WILL SAY FAREWELL TO THE AMATEURS

Premier Athlete of the Northwest Will be Seen in the Professional Ranks.

SEATTLE, August 14.—Tom McDonald, the premier athlete of the University of Washington and peerless among the athletes of the Northwest, will probably fight his last battle in the athletic arena for Washington next Thanksgiving Day, and bidding goodbye to the amateur ranks forever, step out into professional life. At least such is the announcement made by McDonald to a friend. The first of the year he expects to take a position as an assistant to physical director, Roller.

For two seasons past McDonald's gigantic form has loomed up here on every football field upon which the Washingtonians have fought and often when it seemed impossible for others to gain Tom would be called back for one last desperate and final effort and rarely did the big fellow fail to gain the required yardage.

It was in the California game of last Thanksgiving, however, that Tom won his greatest fame on the gridiron, when single-handed he stopped six successive line plunges of the three heavy California backs after they had pierced the Washington line. So remarkable was his work on this occasion that the Californians called the Washington team a one-man team, and Christy, the California trainer, pronounced McDonald to be the greatest defensive player in the West. While brilliant as a gridiron gladiator, McDonald is undoubtedly the best all-around athlete in the Northwest and one of the best in the country. He excels chiefly as a weight man in the track team. He holds the Northwest record for the 16-pound shot put and hammer throw and is a creditable performer with the discus. He is a star basketball player and wrestler. McDonald is probably the strongest man in the State of Washington, at least he holds that record on the strength testing machine with a total of 5200 and more pounds to his credit.

Tom is captain of the University of Washington football team for the coming season and will retain his amateur standing until after the close of the football season. He has an offer from Dr. Roller then to take a position under him as physical director, and he plans to accept it the first of the year. In two more years Tom will win his A. B. degree at Washington and he then intends to take up medicine. Strong efforts will be brought by the supporters of the purple and gold to have the big fellow retain his amateur standing until after he graduates, and when the time comes he may change his mind. Tom is at present out camping, but has announced to a number of his friends that he will take up professional work after the close of the football season.

DECLARE THE RACES WERE NOT ON SQUARE

Public Disgusted With the Showing Made on the San Lorenzo Track.

The visitors at the Lorenzo track on the Haywards road were bitterly disappointed yesterday in the racing program.

Declarations were made that the races were faked and that the betting public was skinned.

Here is what the San Francisco Chronicle had to say of the affair:

"SAN LORENZO, August 13.—The trotting and running races advertised for the Lorenzo track were held here this afternoon and attracted a large attendance of horsemen and other lovers of speedy animals, many making the trip from San Francisco to see the contests.

"The meet, taken as a whole, was a failure. The races were not only tame but more than one of them looked decidedly fishy, and the crowd that paid admissions went away disgruntled and unwilling to return. Had today's races been of a fairly high class it would have been possible to hold events each week hereafter and to have drawn large crowds. The initial attempt, however, was such a failure that it is doubtful if an attempt will be made to hold further racing here this season."

BATTERIES FOR BAGGOTS WANT A GAME

Sporting Editor TRIBUNE.—Dear Sir: Franking possibly that it might be a good plan to announce the batteries for the games to be played, I beg to advise you that for next Tuesday's game at Idora Park they will be as follows: For Oakland: Oscar Graham and Byrnes, for Tacoma: Fitzgerald and Hogan.

We would undoubtedly have one of the largest Sunday crowds of the season yesterday had it not been for the fact that the street car service was tied up just at the time our patrons were endeavoring to reach the grounds.

Notwithstanding this fact a great many walked out and a very fair crowd was present. Yours truly, Oakland Baseball Association, E. S. Whalen, secretary.

The Old Leaguers defeated the K. & E. team of Twenty-third avenue last Sunday by the very one-sided score of 13 to 0. Only one of their men reached as far as third base.

The features of the game was the pitching of O'Connell who allowed but two scattered hits and struck out fourteen men; also the all-around playing of the Old Leaguers. "Demon" Patterson's batting also was a feature. "King" Whalen's fielding was phenomenal.

The Young Baggots defeated the Greenwoods Friday morning at St. Mary's College by the score of 14 to 12.

The Baggots would like to hear from any team averaging 14 or under. The line-up is as follows: B. Bennett, shortstop; A. Schammet, third base; S. Powell, second base; Hermie, first base; C. Cammet, catcher; J. Raffet, left field; L. Richardson, center field; L. Ward, right field; Raynolds, pitcher.

Address all challenges to B. Bennett, 578 Twenty-ninth street, captain.

Thomas C. McDowell's Geranium won the Catekill selling stakes at Saratoga in a supreme effort. This daughter of Lazarene and Gallard III carried the hopes and wagers of a majority of the speculatively inclined of the vast crowd that was present at the seventh day's racing of the Saratoga Association.

Many sensational wagers were recorded on this race throughout the betting. John W. Gates' commission alone exceeded $20,000. W. Cowan handling half of it in a single bet. Geranium, entered for $1,500, was bid up by Frank Brown to $3,000, at which point owner McDowell jumped her price $500, with the remark that if he couldn't run his mare in selling races no one else should have the privilege. Brown stopped.

SHE WON MONEY ON A FIGHT

Girl Goes Shopping With Stakes Won at the Ringside.

NEW YORK, August 14.—Miss Lillian Burnette spent twelve hours yesterday in the department stores, buying an outfit for a flat and paying for it with the gate receipts from an eight-round finish fight in Harlem, governed by Queensberry rules, in which her heart figured as the prize for which two athletic youths battled before a large crowd.

Charles Ryan of Chicago and Walter Robinson of 151 East 123d street, a member of the Polo Athletic Club, both feather-weights, were the contestants, and as round after round was fought the girl was waiting expectantly a block away for the winner to proclaim himself. To her it was a case of how happy she could be with either were her dear charmer away, and the only way for one to be driven away was by the fists of the other. While disliking prize fights, she consented to the match and its conditions.

Miss Burnette was formerly employed by the grain house of Wilks, Barrett & Co. of Chicago, and Ryan was a sweet-heart. They were just beginning to talk of marriage when Robinson went to the Windy City for a fight and there became acquainted with her.

ROBINSON IS INDUCED TO LEAVE. Ryan realized that the new arrival was getting too popular, and he induced him to quit Chicago. Much to Ryan's chagrin, Robinson had secretly left for the East when Miss Burnette also came here and went to live at 2114 Lexington avenue, near where Robinson lived.

Ryan lived in agony for a few days and then came here and tried to get Robinson to transfer his attentions elsewhere, but by that time the latter was head over heels in love with the girl and he refused to recognize the right of priority.

"Well, you will have to settle it in some way," said Ryan, sulkily.

"I'm willing," replied Robinson. "Then let us fight eight rounds, the winner to get the gate receipts and Lillian to be the purse. It must be understood, however, that the loser will be man and drop out without any further talk."

Ryan was confident and he was overjoyed when Robinson agreed. There was some further preliminary talk and then the date was set for the fight. The scene was to be in a building on East Eighty-eighth street, and both men sold tickets among their acquaintances. Ninety tickets were sold and the purchasers were all sworn to secrecy.

GIRL GETS NEWS BY ROUNDS. The men went into the ring stripped for action, and after moments' first round was under way. Ryan had the best of it and uppercuted Robinson several times. At the end of the round one of the spectators ran up the street to tell Miss Burnette she was waiting and told her that Robinson was the worst of it. A shadow of regret flashed across her face. When the second round began Robinson was a bit fresher and he slammed Ryan about at will. Once again the antagonist against the ropes he shouted laughing.

"You will make me fight for my girl? Wait until I get through with you." Miss Burnette clapped her hands with joy when she heard of this round. Then came three rounds full of black portent for Robinson. Mr. Ryan did all of the things to him that prize fighters talk about in polite society, and it seemed as if the challenger from the West would have an easy time of it. The responsive spirits of Miss Burnette dropped again.

Then came the sixth, seventh and eighth rounds, and the same things happened, only it was Mr. Ryan who got the worst of it, and the finish showed him a badly whipped man, with bruises over his entire body. Both boys took the money, the two men walked up to where the girl was and Ryan with tears in his eyes shook her hand and said:

"Well, good-by, Lillian; my nobles looked me."

RYAN RETURNS TO CHICAGO. With the element of comedy in it, the little tragedy was ended, and Ryan bolted down the street to make a quick start for Chicago.

Last night when Robinson was asked about the affair he said:

"Yes, we fought the little girl and the gate receipts. The $193 will help to buy something for the home we are going to start pretty soon."

LITTLE GIRL SWIMS A VERY FAST MILE

BOSTON, August 14.—Rose Pitonoff, aged 10 years, of this city, yesterday swam a mile in Dorchester Bay in 33 minutes. The child's performance, which was witnessed and recorded by competent judges, is believed to be the best record ever held by a girl amateur swimmer in open water.

Prétension's last two races seem to indicate that this good gelding is regaining his best form. He was a remarkably good racer at St. Louis last summer and again at City Park early in the spring of the present year, but, trained off and is just beginning to show what he can do when right. However, if he keeps on winning, Mr. Vosburgh will soon have him amply taken care of, so far as the handicaps are concerned.

By the score of 11 to 5 the Berkeley Merchants were victorious yesterday over the Martinez Brothers in a game of baseball played at Idora Park. The winners have won several games in the last few weeks, and express themselves as willing to meet any amateur team on this side of the bay.

The feature of the game was the battery work of Connolly and Hampton. As a matter of fact, Connolly was the whole show. After the first inning he got down to business and held the mound down until the bleachers told him to quit. Everybody knows that Hampton is the real thing behind the bat. But he surprised them yesterday. He took every chance and never made an error and the fans say he is it.

The lineup was as follows: Berkeley Merchants—Hampton, c; Connolly, p; J. Buchenry, 1b; Whitman, 2b; Stabile, 3b; Bush s; Rowe, 1b; Trueblood, cf; Rose, rf.

Martinez Brothers—W. Martinez, c; Heister, p; McFarland, 1b; Burdop, 2b; Brown, 3b; J. Martinez, s; J. Martinez, 1b; W. Martinez, cf; Cooper, rf.

Umpire—Lungard.

Tradition worked one mile and an eighth at Saratoga recently in 1:56 1/2, which is regarded as excellent work on a track so heavy. The work was in preparation for the Alabama Stakes on Thursday, in which she carries 124 pounds.

Somlamite, Klamasha and Gold Ten are the most probable starters which will oppose Tradition. The stake is worth $5,000 in all, of which $4,850 net goes to the winner.

CARD COMPLETE FOR THE WEST OAKLAND BOUTS.

Amateur Night Will Draw a Large Attendance at the West End Club.

The card of amateur bouts which the matchmaker of the West Oakland Club has arranged for this month's show is the best that will be seen for some time. The six bouts will be hot ones from start to finish and will provide an excellent evening's sport.

All the matches are made between well-known men, who have appeared a number of times in former bouts and have always put up rattling bouts, and as they are all getting into excellent shape no doubt they will mix it up from start to finish.

The first bout will bring out Young Ganley, W. O. A. S., and Kid Josephs. These two met before and Ganley received the decision after four hot rounds. Since that time Josephs has been anxious to recover his lost laurels.

The next bout will bring out Loren Brown and Young Choyinski. These two met before and Choyinski had Brown all but out in the third round. Brown turned around and beat him out in the next one. Since that time Choyinski has been waiting to get at Brown again and will try and do the trick this time. Ed Menser and Kid Williams meet in the next bout. Both are experienced boxers, as well as fast men. A hot one can be looked for.

Jim Alexander and Jack Hughes meet in the next go. Both are men with a punch in either hand and it is doubtful if their bout goes the limit. It will be full of action while it lasts.

Jack Riley and Brick McCauley meet in the next bout. Riley put up an excellent bout last month and in McCauley he will find a hard man, who will mix it from start to finish. McCauley has boxed at the club before and put his man away in two rounds, and has a wallop in both hands.

Abe Label and Jim Davies meet in the last go. Label is well known and has had a great many bouts. He put J. Rodgers away in two rounds at the Max.

The show held at the club. In Davies he will find a man who will mix it with him and will give him the hardest fight he has ever had. He worked out with Rufe Turner and now getting into shape in the S. F. A. S., and a hot bout will be in order when they meet.

POINTERS ABOUT SOME OF THE JOCKEYS WE KNOW

Jockey Redfern Will Try His Luck at Riding Abroad Next Season.

Jockey Treubel had a lengthy talk with Judge Murphy at Lakewood yesterday, and after a long discussion arrived at a modification of the ruling issued against him. Judge Murphy remained firm and informed the rider that if he was ambitious to shine as a plunger he ought to turn in his license as a rider, or, if he wanted to remain a rider he should give up the habit of making big wagers as soon or later, it will cause his downfall.

Treubel, after his interview with Judge Murphy, was a very likely place for him to go to Jockey E. Walsh, who has frequently been mentioned in connection with Treubel, will also seek new climes and will journey tonight to Portland, Ore.

Advices received by turfmen who have retired at Memphis for the coming of the early autumn and winter racing season are that there is likely to be a postponement of the Texas circuit, which was to have commenced September 20 at Denison. Presence of yellow fever in several southern States has stagnated traffic and interest in out-of-door sports, and so interfered with movements owing to quarantine that turfmen anticipate no racing until fall of frost, which is regarded as a forerunner of the lifting of the quarantine.

Jockey Redfern announces that he will try his luck at riding abroad next season. He has accumulated much fatty tissue all year and finds the reducing process such hard work to keep down to the low scale of riding weight in this country that he believes he would do much better by going abroad and accepting whatever mounts are offered. He will first try his luck in England and will sail for the British Isles this fall. For three years Redfern was considered the greatest jockey in America, but as he has had few mounts this season he has not been in the public eye of late as much as he was when he could ride in nearly every race.

BASEBALL VS. CRICKET

Any Englishman who has seen the American game of baseball, after watching our splendid game of cricket, can realize at once how wide and how deep is the gulf between the two.—London Newspaper.

I. A blooming English cricketer lay dying in New York. His heart was very heavy and his head was light as cork. A comrade knelt beside him as his talk grew strange and wild. And heard him prattle of the days when he was but a child. The dying sportsman faltered as he took his comrade's mit. And muttered: "Blawst me eyes, old chap! That's jolly well a hit! If we can get three hundred runs we'll beat those blawsted Gerns—We beat them once in Lunnon—old Lunnon on the Thames."

II. "I saw a blooming baseball game, 'twas just the other day. The players hustled, don't you know, in quite a reckless way. I paid four shillings for a seat, and say, I 'ope to die. The bloody game was over in the twinkling of an eye! I say, when we played cricket, that was jolly well a game. And if it didn't last three days the cockneys called it tame. It took the Piccadilly sixteen days to beat the Gerns. The year we played in Lunnon—old Lunnon on the Thames."

III. "And when I watched this Yankee game I heard, or seemed to hear, The most outlandish talk you know—my word, but it was queer! The chap they call the umpire didn't act a bit afraid. Although the people booed at him and said he was decayed. And when one fellow made a hit so long that he could score He didn't keep on running—on my honor, what a bore! I ran my blooming head off once—the time we played the Gerns And beat them out in Lunnon—old Lunnon on the Thames."

BERKELEY SUBURBAN NEWS UNIVERSITY

BERKELEY MAN SMELLED SMOKE IN THE GREAT BATTLES LOCKWOOD SCHOOL BAND PLAYS AT HIGH SCHOOL OPENING

N. P. Aspinwall An Addition to the Vaults of Veterans in the University Town—Has a Commission Signed by Abraham Lincoln.

BERKELEY, August 14.—The name of Abraham Lincoln, written in the war President's own hand, is signed to a commission which N. P. Aspinwall of Fulton street in Berkeley, holds as one of his most cherished possessions. There are not so many of the veterans of the great war left—not many who have the President's name to their commissions in that war—only a few who can say: "With these eyes I saw those great events that now lie in the shadow of the past—those battles by sea and battles by land, when history was made, and written in blood on the decks of boats or on the sand of the battlefield."

Aspinwall is one of these, and his comrades of the Grand Army posts give him the honor that a veteran who has smelled smoke and mixed with the fighters deserves. Aspinwall recently came to Berkeley from North Dakota.

With John E. Boyd of Berkeley, Aspinwall saw the fight between the Merrimack and Monitor. Aspinwall saw the bombardment and destruction of Fort Sumter; he saw the shelling and burning of Charleston, S. C., by the largest cannon then known, the "Swamp Angel"; he was with General Seymour's expedition when he occupied Florida and captured Jacksonville; he saw the naval battle between the ironclad Confederate Merrimack and the wooden frigates Congress, Cumberland and Minnesota, in which the Congress and Cumberland went down with their flags flying in the first day's fight; he was at Port Monroe when General McClellan's army landed, and he took part in the peninsular campaign; he was chief quartermaster of the district of Florida. Aspinwall went through the war and came out without a scratch. He entered the service with the Eleventh Pennsylvania Cavalry and was honorably discharged in June, 1865.

Aspinwall's commission from President Lincoln reads as follows:

DOCUMENT FROM LINCOLN.
"To all who shall see these presents greeting: Know ye that respecting special trust, confidence in the patriotism, valor, fidelity and abilities of N. P. Aspinwall, I have nominated, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him Assistant Quartermaster of the Volunteers with the rank of Captain in the service of the United States, to rank as such from the eleventh day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-three. He is therefore to carefully and diligently discharge the duty of Assistant Quartermaster by doing and performing all manner of things therein belonging.

N. P. ASPINWALL AS HE IS TODAY

"And I do strictly charge and require all officers and soldiers under his command to be obedient to his orders as Assistant Quartermaster. And he is to observe and follow such orders and directions from time to time as he shall receive from me or the future President of the United States of America, or the General or other superior officers set over him, according to the rules and discipline of war. This commission to continue in force during the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being.

"ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President.
"EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War."

N. P. ASPINWALL AS HE WAS IN THE DAYS OF WAR.

for the time being.
"ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President.
"EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War."

Professor Who Went Through New Orleans.

BERKELEY, August 14.—Professor T. Cowden Laughlin of the Pacific Theological Seminary was taken through the worst fever district of New Orleans, held in detention camp for six days under armed guards and then escaped out of Louisiana by a few hours' grace on the last train to leave the plague-stricken country. Professor Laughlin has just returned to this city. Speaking of his trip and his detention in the governmental camp, Professor Laughlin said today:

"I had purchased my round trip ticket to New York with a return via Chicago from New York and when I left on the train for New Orleans, the fever had been raging in that city but three days, but little attention being paid to it. As we drew nearer to the south the fever talk increased and by the time we had reached the borders of Mississippi, no one was allowed to get off the train unless he or she could present a health certificate. When I heard the ravages the plague was making in New Orleans, I had no desire to visit the place and wanted to get off and return to Berkeley by another way. But they refused to allow me to go and I was carried into the Southern metropolis against my will. At 8:15 p. m. Friday, July 29, we reached the stricken city and I found I would be forced to remain there until 11:55 the next morning. None of the passengers on our train had any desire to leave the cars, but the authorities and the railroad officials forced us to stop over at the expense of the company. I was taken to the Charles Hotel and lodged there overnight. Everything was so strange in the city of fever. Screens were over every opening and all the beds to keep the deadly miasma, by which the fever spread. Everyone appeared panic stricken and went about on tiptoe whispering. There was no mirth and it was a mournful city.

"I spent the evening trying to get out of the city, but they had me nearly discouraged, for it looked as though it would be November or December before I could get away. I found bluffing did not work, for the railroad officials would not give me a ticket and it was refused on every train. I saw Dr. White, the surgeon in charge of the city, which was then under the supervision of the Public Health Service. He was a kindly man, but he told me he could do little, save to send me to a detention camp, Avondale, twelve miles out of the city.

"Next morning I was put in charge of a guard and was taken to the station where I could board the train for the detention camp.

"I was ferried across the river, with several others to a screened train, if such a thing as a train covered with mosquito netting can be imagined, and taken to the detention camp, where I had the privilege of spending five days. Such an experience I never want to go through again. There were, perhaps, in a rough camp, guarded by twelve armed men with orders to kill the first man stepping outside the boundaries of the place, with poor food and shelter, though I must be confessed the government did its very best for us under the circumstances. There were one hundred confined in this camp, which was in charge of Assistant Vah Wart and Simon of the Marine Corps. Four huge rattlesnakes were killed while I was in camp, and one morning I woke to find a big rattler coiled up but a few feet from my bed in the tent. It got away before I could kill it and I sleep during the rest of my stay in the camp rather uneasy.

"At the end of five days, we were informed that we could depart, as no symptom of fever had broken out. We were taken in another screened train to the track of the westbound limited accompanied by Assistant Surgeon Maylie. In this train we crossed Louisiana to the Texas border and had a single person was allowed to get off the train unless possessed of a health certificate.

LOCKWOOD SCHOOL BAND PLAYS AT HIGH SCHOOL OPENING

LOCKWOOD SCHOOL BAND.

Interesting Program Rendered at the Beginning of the New Secondary Institution.

ELMHURST, August 14.—Pupils from all the schools in the Union High School district and their parents, with the friends and well wishers of the High School itself, attended the opening exercises this morning. These took place at the Melrose building, where the High School is to be located for the first year or two of its existence. A very creditable program was rendered, and the Lockwood School band supplying the music.

The Rev. Charles R. Brown of Oakland delivered an interesting address, as did also the new principal, F. S. Rosier, and T. O. Crawford, the County Superintendent of Schools. Dr. W. F. Lynch of Elmhurst, who is the president of the Board of Trustees, acted as chairman of the day and made the introductory remarks.

Several of the new students favored the audience with recitations and music. After the program the visitors went through the High School rooms on the upper floor and inspected the apparatus and furniture. A fine equipment has been prepared and every one was well pleased at the showing made.

It is expected that over 150 pupils will enter the school this afternoon when the registration begins. Quite a few more will come in at the close of the fruit season, as they are now compelled to assist in the harvesting and fruit work.

All the grammar schools in the five districts around allowed the pupils to have a holiday this morning in order that they might attend the exercises at the High School. The program as rendered was as follows:

5 a. m., organization of High School; 10 a. m., music, Lockwood School Cornet Band; introductory remarks, Dr. W. F. Lynch, president of board; address, Rev. Charles R. Brown; piano solo, Mabel Graham, '08; address, George J. Hans, Trustee of High School; music, under direction of Mrs. J. Norman, Elmhurst School; music, Lockwood School Cornet Band; address, T. O. Crawford, County Superintendent of Schools; monologue, Scott Howat; vocal solo, Miss Eubank, Dewey School; music, Lockwood School Cornet Band.

Tomorrow morning the work of the year in the various classes is to begin. There are pupils in all four years.

MINOR MENTION.
Mr. and Mrs. William. Buess entertained a number of their friends last week at the Elmhurst Hotel with a pleasant card party. After the games had been finished, the guests were led to the dining room and there partook of a sumptuous repast. Short and witty speeches followed.

Following are the names of those who were present: Mr. and Mrs. William Buess, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hobart, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Tiedemann,

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tutt, Mrs. Alfred Barker, Miss Belle Hobart and Frank Storer.

In the absence of Pastor E. E. Clark the services in the Presbyterian Church here yesterday were conducted by the Rev. J. P. Gerrier, who preached both morning and evening.

A total enrollment of 287 pupils marked the opening week at the Elmhurst Grammar School. This exceeds the number of any previous year and is looked upon as one of the good results of the recently passed laws regulating child labor and compelling those of tender ages to attend school.

Following is a list of those in the different grades here:

First grade, Miss Josephine Harris, number 45; second grade, Mrs. N. M. Norman, number 40; third grade, Mrs. E. C. Helms, number 86; fourth grade, Miss Queen Wheeler, number 35; fifth and sixth grades, Miss A. M. Riney, number 32; seventh and eighth grades, J. D. Armstrong, number 25.

A Ball of a Wisconsin has brought his family here and taken up his residence temporarily in one of the Stone cottages. He is about to commence the construction of a five-room cottage on same property recently purchased on Beran street.

COIN FOR A CO-ED

Bertha Boye Would Sue Young Editors.

BERKELEY, August 14.—Miss Bertha Boye, a university "co-ed," has levied a demand for coin upon Jackson Gregory and Prentiss Gray, editor and business manager of the last Blue and Gold issued at the university, and has threatened to go to law unless the money desired is paid at once. Bertha Boye is a student at the Hopkins Art Institute in San Francisco. She was on the art staff of the 1906 Blue and Gold, with a number of other art students from the institute, which is an institution affiliated with the University of California. It was part of her duty, according to the editors, to submit drawings for use in the Blue and Gold, which is always profusely illustrated, student talent being responsible for the work.

Miss Boye demands money for her share of this work, and the astounded Blue and Gold men who have received her demands are now awaiting legal summons which will call them into court, where the young woman apparently proposes to test her claim. She believes her work for the Blue and Gold was worth at least $25, and has asked Gregory and Gray, editor and manager of the volume in which her drawing appeared, to pay her that sum. Miss Boye has retained a lawyer in San Francisco to represent her, and the attorney has informed Prentiss Gray that he can save trouble and expense by settling the claim out of court.

Miss Boye's action is regarded as unique. Never in the history of the university has an artist or writer for the Blue and Gold been paid money for his or her work, nor have any ever expressed a desire to be paid. "College spirit" is supposed to prompt the workers and love of alma mater presumably inspire all to do their best according to the college men who are most familiar with campus traditions. To all of these, who sympathize with the luckless editor and manager of the '06 Blue and Gold, Miss Boye's demand for money has come as a distinct shock.

The irony of the circumstance is revealed when it is known that Jackson Gregory, editor in chief of the Blue and Gold, had been paid money before using Miss Boye's contribution, not regarding it with favor as a work of art. He finally decided to print the drawing rather than hurt Miss Boye's feelings by rejecting the contribution. He was called up by telephone a day or two before the Blue and Gold appeared for sale while it was still on the press, and asked by Miss Boye if her drawing was being used.

"It is," answered Gregory.
"Well, you know, of course, I will expect to be paid for it," said Miss Boye.
"What-a-t?" yelled Gregory.
"Yes; about $25 will do," said Miss Boye. Gregory collapsed.

Later he consulted with Prentiss Gray, his business manager, and the two decided that it must be a hoax. Later, when Gray received a letter from Miss Boye's attorney advising him to settle the young woman's claim at once, the matter assumed a more serious aspect.

Neither Gray nor Gregory have engaged counsel, but neither will admit the intention to either pay the claim or compromise it in any way.

Miss Boye's drawing, for which she wants money, is of a young woman standing in pose, nude, and reclining attitude at an entrance to the Greek Theater. Miss Boye believes it is all worth at least $25. Its real worth may not be determined until art experts appear on the stand in her suit for $25 and give testimony regarding the merits of the drawing.

Miss Anna Miller Wood will be at home next Wednesday at Cloyne Court, Berkeley, from 3 to 5 p. m.

Fletcher Johnson has returned from the Oak Hill mine, and is now with Hooper Lumber Company in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. H. Reider and Miss Reider of 2412 Fulton street, formerly of Los Angeles, where they will spend the next two weeks visiting friends.

James McLaren of Chelsea, Michigan, is visiting with his son, Dr. McLaren, having accompanied Mrs. McLaren and daughter June on their return from the East.

Mrs. Chandler Howard, who are daughters Miss Gladys and Miss Sibyl Howard, have arrived from the East and are guests at the St. Francis Hotel. Mrs. Howard and Miss Gladys will return to their home in Yokohama, and Miss Sibyl will remain here for a year at Miss McCollough's school in Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dibble, who are occupying a house in Berkeley, which they have rented for the summer, will return to San Francisco the first of September and will spend the winter at the Pine street home of Mrs. Dibble's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. DuVal during the absence of Mrs. DuVal in Europe.

Miss Margery Patterson of this city has been the guest during the last week of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lane at Stockton. Many interesting dates have been set for her entertainment. Mrs. H. T. Buckley made her central figure of a delightful tea, and there has been no limit to the auto parties in the Lane's new Columbia.

"FRATS" SCORED

Supt. Waterman Has No Use For Societies.

BERKELEY, August 14.—Superintendent of Schools S. D. Waterman, in a letter to the public, issued in connection with Director Knowles' recent statement that the Berkeley High School is an institution of the third class, scores Elgin School "frats." Superintendent Waterman declares that the injurious effects of "frats" in the schools are responsible for the rating of the High School, and that the standard and ability of the teachers are not responsible for the school's failure to be ranked in the first class.

Superintendent Waterman pays his respects to "frats" and to school athletics as follows:
"Many young men come to the Berkeley schools from other schools led solely by a desire to excel in athletics and to get in touch with the University before becoming students in that institution. With these students the football team, the baseball team or the track team are placed first, and the actual preparation for scholastic work comes second. The tendency of High School students in a university town is to follow the lead of the University students. This tendency is seen to a marked degree in the Berkeley High School.

"Again the High School fraternity, which by the way, is an abomination in the eyes of all who are familiar with it in its working and effects both upon the school as a whole and the individual student in particular, flourishes in the Berkeley High School like a green bay tree. The fraternity in the High School has nothing to commend it. It has no place there and some means should be found for the removal of influences of this kind which are detrimental to the school. The arguments for the existence of the fraternity in the University do not apply to their existence in the High School."

WHAT THEY TOOK.
It is reported that on a recent occasion when Arthur Balfour, Joseph Chamberlain, Lord Chas. Beresford, and the Japanese minister were dining out together, Mr. Balfour, who was standing treat, asked Mr. Chamberlain what he would have.

"Thanks," I'll take Scotch, Arthur," was the response.

"And what will you take, Lord Charles?"
"I'll take Irish, Arthur."
"All that will you take?" addressing the Japanese minister.
"I'll take Scotch, Arthur," was the answer.—Harper's Weekly.

HAD A BATTLE WITH A MANIAC

A. A. Baroteau Had a Narrow Escape From Serious Injury in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, August 14.—In a fight yesterday morning with a raving maniac, A. A. Baroteau of Chestnut street, near Railroad avenue, had a narrow escape from death, escaping with no other injuries than a broken left arm.

The negro, Haddon Robbins, who is a religious maniac, became angered at the fact of Baroteau demanding rent which was due to him. The negro flew at Baroteau with a hatchet, and had one of the blows which he aimed at him reached its objective point, Baroteau would have been a corpse.

Baroteau called yesterday morning at the home of Robbins, which is owned by his mother, Mrs. Marie Baroteau, and demanded the rent, which has been long since overdue. Robbins ordered him away from the premises, but the "baron" refused to leave the yard. The religious man seized a hatchet and advanced towards the rent collector. Baroteau stood his ground. Robbins struck him several times, but missed him. Finally he made a vicious swing with his murderous weapon and Baroteau received upon his arm the blow which would have split his skull. Pain from the pain, he staggered to the sidewalk, where his mother found him, and vigorously attacked the murderous negro.

The police were called and Officer William Walmuth took Robbins in charge. On the way to the police station Baroteau's assailant made two attempts to get at the man whom he had endeavored to kill, but through the interference of the policeman his attempts were frustrated. At the police station he was bound with a deadly weapon and the other of battery, with bail aggregating $1100. In the late yesterday afternoon Baroteau was released from the station and could not be quieted by the keepers.

The wounded man was attended by Dr. S. H. Bulsant of Oakland, who found that he had sustained a fracture of the left forearm, the bone being badly shattered.

Baroteau said today: "For some time this Robbins has owed rent on the house which he occupied and yesterday when I went to collect it, I nearly lost my life. It was only a week ago that the negro threatened the life of my mother and with force drove her from the premises. I approached him in a quiet manner, and he attacked me with the ferocity of a maniac. It is a wonder that I was not killed, for this man certainly meant to do me great bodily harm."

DISCONCERTING.

"Now boys," said the schoolmaster, during an examination in geography, "what is the axis of the earth?"

Johnny raised his hand promptly. "Well, Johnny, how would you describe it?"

"The axis of the earth," said Johnny, proudly, "is an imaginary line which passes from one pole to the other, and on which the earth revolves."

"Very good," exclaimed the teacher. "Now, could you hang clothes on that line, Johnny?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Indeed?" said the examiner, disappointed, "and what sort of clothes?"

"Imaginary clothes, sir,"—Harper's Weekly.

NEWS NOTES.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Friends Mourn Loss of Miss Grace Branin.

SAN LEANDRO August 14.—In honor of the memory of the late Miss Grace Branin the fraternal societies of San Leandro held a service at the Union Church there yesterday afternoon. The members of the Beta Zeta Sorority, the Adelphean Club, the Christian Endeavor and Miss Branin's Sunday School class met at the village hall and marched to the church. The Rev. C. Gause, the pastor, preached the simple sermon, extolling the many virtues of the deceased. Many of those present were affected to tears by the words of the minister. Several of the young friends of the departed sang songs appropriate to the service. The choir of the church rendered several selections.

HAY FIRE STARTED.
August 14.—A farmer near here was the loser of several hundred dollars worth of hay last week. A fire started in some unknown way and gained such headway that the efforts to extinguish it were futile. The whole stock was destroyed with the exception of a small amount which could be removed from the blazing pile. The unfortunate farmer resides on the J. D. O'Brien place in Castro Valley.

BRIEF NOTES.
Mrs. L. D. McArdle lost her pocket book containing several articles of value while returning on a crowded car from Oakland last week. She had several papers and ten lecture tickets in the receptacle.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Miller are entertaining several friends from North Bloomfield and Pasadena this week. Many of the residents here are preparing to take walks to the hills and woods back of San Leandro this month. Barbecues at Lake Chabot and trips to the canyons are being planned.

Mrs. J. Knott of San Francisco returned home yesterday after spending several days visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Smith.

Mrs. W. D. Oakes of Dutton avenue is being visited by Miss Eulalia Baradad and Miss Lizzie Fitzsimmons of San Francisco.

Last night Dr. A. J. Hanson delivered the third sermon on "The Bible as a Book." Miss A. Williams of San Francisco is the guest of Miss Stephana Roberts at her home on Hayward avenue.

The Gray collared on First avenue has been taken by Mr. and Mrs. S. Henderson of Vallejo.

Mrs. M. A. Thurston led the meeting of the Epworth League last evening at the Methodist Church. The subject for discussion was "The Building of Character."

Miss Mary Amers is visiting friends in Pleasanton this week. Dr. W. C. Dubois of El Centro is the guest of his brother in law, Dr. L. McWorthy.

Miss Aurora Duarte of Lincoln avenue has returned from a week's visit to friends in San Jose.

FLYING DUTCHMAN LOOK FOR A BIG TURNS TURTLE

AT THIRTY-FIVE MILES AN HOUR MANOEUVERING IS TOO SUDDEN.

MARBLEHEAD, August 14.--H. L. Bowden's power boat Flying Dutchman III capsized off Marblehead Neck yesterday and Mr. Bowden and two companions had a narrow escape from drowning.

The men were trying out the engine and were going at a speed of 35 miles an hour. They attempted to turn and suddenly put the rudder over too sharp, as the boat did not respond and the boat turned turtle, sending three men flying into the water.

Mrs. Bowden viewed the accident from her piazza and at once sent a rowboat to the rescue. Before help arrived, however, the men, after clinging to the craft, succeeded in righting her. Fortunately the machinist, who was on board, saw the boat going over and shut off all power. The air tanks forward and aft kept the boat from sinking. The vessel was uninjured.

HAND OF DEATH ON CAPTAIN HATT

NEW YORK, August 14.--Captain "Hank" Hatt, of the American cup, is lying dangerously ill at his home in Islip, L. I., and in an adjoining room his wife is in an equally critical condition. Captain Hatt had a sinking spell yesterday and today he is worse. His old fear is felt that he will not recover. The serious condition of each patient has been kept from the other.

CATARRH A UNIVERSAL DISEASE

Catarrh usually begins with a cold in the head, but does not stop there. The mucous membranes all become inflamed and secrete a filthy, unhealthy matter which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. The patient is then continually sneezing and spitting, the nose is stopped up, the ears have a ringing or buzzing noise, the throat becomes sore, and as the unhealthy matter more thoroughly saturates the blood a general feeling of despondency takes possession of the system.

I had Catarrh for about fifteen years, and no man could have been worse. I tried everything I could hear of, but no good resulted. I then began to use S. S. S. and could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and after taking it a short while was cured. This was six years ago, and I am as well today as any man. I think Catarrh is a blood disease and that the only way to cure it is to get the blood clean. S. S. S. is the only blood purifier for the blood that S. S. S. can do. Lapsley, Mich. M. MASON.

Local applications cannot cure Catarrh, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. They only relieve the inflammation and temporarily relieve the disease, but as soon as they are left off the trouble returns. The only way to cure Catarrh is to reach through the blood. S. S. S. soon cleans the blood of all Catarrh matter and purges it of all irritating poisons, checks further progress of the trouble and completely cures the disease. S. S. S. keeps the blood in perfect condition so that it can eliminate from the system all waste matter that will produce Catarrh. Nothing equals this great vegetable remedy in the cure of this disease. Write for our book and any medical advice you wish. We make no charge for either.

CAR MANUFACTURERS HAVE PLANNED CONVENTION THAT MEANS MUCH.

PHILADELPHIA, August 14.--Eight hundred of the heads of the largest firms engaged in the manufacture of trolley cars have engaged rooms in a local hotel for the second week in September for a convention that is looked forward to with deep interest by business men as being the possible forerunner of one of the greatest consolidations of recent years.

K. C. McQuinton, superintendent of the Westinghouse Electric Company, and P. H. Gale, president of the General Electric Company of Schenectady, N. Y., have each engaged thirty rooms. The National Airbrake Company has thirty rooms; and dozens of firms that appear as competitive bidders in making the body of trolley cars are nesting down in adjoining apartments, in engaging which demands have been made that they must adjoin those of some other firm.

G. W. PRICE & Co., of the J. G. Brill Company of this city, one of the largest manufacturers of car bodies in the world, decline to discuss consolidation rumors, but it is an open secret that members of this firm have held numerous conferences during the last six months with representatives of other large car concerns, and that by absorbing works at St. Louis and Elizabethport a beginning at least has been made toward a general consolidation.

Among other arrangements that have engaged more than ten rooms for their officers are the Blain-Schultz Company, the Lucan Company, the Massachusetts Chemical Company, the Consolidated Car Heating Company, the Standard Paint Company and the Louisville Railroad Company.

GAMBLERS BEAT UP A POLICEMAN

NEW YORK, August 11.--Set upon and beaten and kicked nearly to death by a crowd of young men who resembled his having led a raid on their gambling club a few hours previously, Patrolman Vance C. Lavender of Brooklyn, was carried to a hospital yesterday in a dying condition. After the assault, when Lavender's comrades were sent out to lound up the gang who had attacked him, they laid the fight on their lives at the mercy of Michael J. Lynch, who is said to be one of the ring leaders in the attack upon Lavender. In the melee Mrs. Mary Lynch, the mother of the man, put such a light that it was necessary for the police to use their night sticks on her, with the result that with an arm broken she is lying in the same hospital with Lavender.

HELMER NELSON, who resides at 478 Seventh street in Oakland, left his home last Saturday evening and went to San Francisco. At 2:55 o'clock he was found on the corner of Montgomery and Jackson streets by two men, who, Nelson claims, knocked him down and robbed him of $8. The men made their escape, and Nelson was unable to give a description of them to the police. Nelson was not badly hurt as the result of his experience.

CLAIMED HE WAS ROBBED ACROSS BAY

HELMER NELSON, who resides at 478 Seventh street in Oakland, left his home last Saturday evening and went to San Francisco. At 2:55 o'clock he was found on the corner of Montgomery and Jackson streets by two men, who, Nelson claims, knocked him down and robbed him of $8. The men made their escape, and Nelson was unable to give a description of them to the police. Nelson was not badly hurt as the result of his experience.

TREASURE BOX IS RETURNED

CHEST CONTAINING $258,000 WORTH OF SECURITIES GIVEN BACK TO OWNER.

SOUTH BRIDGE, MASS., August 14.--The treasure box owned by Herman S. Cheney, with contents intact, which had been missing since February, has been returned, as mysteriously as it disappeared.

The now famous box containing $258,000 of negotiable and non-negotiable securities is once again in the custody of Herman S. Cheney, at his residence on Chestnut street in South Bridge. The box containing $50,000 in cash and securities to the value of about $250,000 was stolen from his home in February last. He had taken the box from his security vault in Boston and hidden it in his house while preparing a schedule of his property.

Mr. Cheney, who is reputed to be worth $800,000, was once the largest holder of the stock of the American Optical Company. Alarms were sent out stopping transfer of the securities.

ARREST HOTEL THIEF. NEW YORK, August 14.--In William Grogan, arrested yesterday, the police believe they have the person who for the last two years has been robbing hotels in this city. Grogan, when arraigned in the Police Court, admitted his guilt. When the police searched his home they recovered property valued at more than $3000 that had, they say, been stolen from several hotels. The stolen property included silverware, lace curtains, linen and a number of suits of clothes.

GULF STREAM IS ACTING QUEERLY

HOLDS BACK SHIP IN ITS COURSE AND IS VERY WARM.

NEW YORK, August 14.--That the Gulf Stream's active six hundred miles east of this city at a point in the Atlantic Ocean, where, according to the ship authorities, it should be hardly discernible, and with such a flow as to hold back to a serious extent the steamship Moltke on her western way, was asserted by Captain Ruser of that ship when she arrived at Hoboken yesterday from Hamburg, Boulogne and Dover.

This activity was observed on Thursday. On Monday the midday speed reckoning showed 40 knots, the next day 29 knots, then 33 and 32 on the following days, and Captain Ruser began to seek for the cause. The water suddenly began to grow warmer and in streaks there were high temperatures that were startling. For five hours this high temperature was recorded, and all day the peculiar activity of the Gulf stream was apparent. When at noon on Friday the day's run was computed it was found that the ship had logged only 357 miles.

All this time according to Captain Ruser, there were light winds from the southwest; a high barometer and an intensely humid atmosphere. "The weather was ideal for the voyagers, as far as smooth seas went, but the temperature on shipboard was almost unbearable, registering nearly 90 degrees."

"I have never before witnessed the Gulf stream active in so high a latitude," said Captain Ruser. "When we felt its full strength we were approximately in north latitude 42 degrees, or the same latitude as New York, and in 60 degrees west longitude."

"I have no theory to account for the current we met. It keeps up the speed that it had when we were on the side," it will be heard of again on the other side."

KENDALL COMING TO MACDONOUGH

Laura Kendall's new play, "Weather-Beaten Benson," which will be seen at the Macdonough Theatre on August 21, 22 and 23, is described as the rollicking success of the season. The play is a comedy which when once the play is seen, "Benson," who is a manufacturer on the Indian Territory border, is nearly ruined through a prolonged dry season, until suddenly his prayers for rain are answered by a terrific deluge which inundates the land and literally soaks the skin.

It is that terrific rain, following the devastating drought that turns rain into opportunity for "Weather-Beaten Benson," and furnishes the motive of the play. The critics declare the piece to be the best of its sort and to afford the unique and amusing comedy of the season. The play opens Thursday, August 17.

Furious Fighting. "For seven years," writes George W. Hoffman of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and cured my disease by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine. Sold under guarantee to do the same for you. At Osmonds' drug stores, Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington, at 50 cents a bottle. Try them today."

If you had taken two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before telling you would not, you would have been in the mouth this morning. Keep a vial with you for occasional use.

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER REPORTS

Tells of the Premiums Received and the Losses Paid During the Year.

SACRAMENTO, August 14.--Insurance Commissioner E. Myron Wolf has submitted to Governor Pardee his annual report of that department for the past year. It shows that the total number of companies which were authorized to transact business in the State during the year were 217. Of these 156 were fire and marine companies, 35 legal reserve life insurance companies, 3 assessment life, health and accident insurance companies, 35 miscellaneous insurance companies and 10 county fire mutuals.

The returns indicate that the companies had a very successful year. The only exceptions were in the cases of industrial life, marine and credit indemnity. The former of these shows a greater amount of insurance in force than at the close of the preceding year, so that it may be said to be in a satisfactory condition.

The total premiums received by all the companies during the year amounted to $24,127,559.48, and the losses paid by them were $3,642,103.16, divided as follows:

	Premiums received.	Losses paid.
Five.....	$10,104,033.49	$3,380,232.77
Marine.....	1,502,518.52	899,004.96
County fire mutuals.....	12,534.09	4,427.06
Life (ordinary).....	10,166,656.76	3,121,517.13
Life (Industrial).....	677,152.51	129,923.98
Life (assessment).....	88,994.91	58,000.00
Health and accident.....	27,836.07	8,759.25
Assessment.....	513,176.35	148,805.50
Health.....	23,771.70	10,641.94
Fidelity and surety.....	315,330.75	108,200.20
Blind.....	408,378.59	130,109.33
Title.....	141,951.38	601.20
Burglary.....	21,846.65	2,687.22
Plate glass.....	58,088.38	17,734.18
Steam boiler.....	34,631.48	33,298.28
Credit indemnity.....	40,237.55	27,490.32
Sprinkler.....	300.00	none
Totals.....	$24,127,559.48	$3,642,103.16

The fire companies have collected during the past twenty years $125,170,551.07, and have paid out in losses $55,958,550.82. The marine companies have collected during the past twenty years $30,950,438.71, and paid out in losses $17,916,706.70.

The ordinary life insurance companies have collected $91,314,000.74, and paid out $10,170,006.55 in losses and endorsements. These figures do not include the returns for industrial life and assessment companies.

TAXES COLLECTED. Extended reference is made to the legislation enacted at the last session in reference to insurance companies, and particularly the taxation measures. During the past year the department collected from the companies, as fees and taxes for the State, $18,010.02, and that there has been a degree of extravagance and wastefulness absolutely unwarranted and unjustifiable. It is charged that close investigation of the affairs of other companies will disclose a similar condition of affairs, and that the companies which have been thrown into the limelight of public view are not the only offenders.

While these developments have been astounding, the general interest taken in them will eventually result in good. It has been a remarkable fact that notwithstanding the vast number of people who contribute their earnings to life insurance companies and the great number of people dependent upon the benefits of life insurance, the public generally has been in complete ignorance as to the principles and details of life insurance business. While generally recognizing its importance and the powerful influence life insurance exercises upon the welfare of the people, the public generally seems to have been unwilling to understand themselves in the fundamental principles governing the business.

Although the average individual in the public is learning to become more familiar with the details of any document in which his business affairs are involved, it is a strange fact that the average person who is familiar with the details of his own business, or even read, their contracts or policies of insurance is extremely small. However, it might be stated that the people who do read their policies, only a small percentage is capable of thoroughly understanding the contract of life insurance business. As a result of these conditions agents have been able to sell that form of policy which they receive the greatest commissions upon forms of policies not the most advantageous to the insured. It is a strange fact that the fact that the great majority of life insurance companies have within recent years issued "detached" policies, and that the number of companies confining themselves strictly to the annual dividend policies is very small.

SURPLUS LINE LAW. The deferred dividend policy has resulted in the building up of immense surpluses, and it was with these funds that the officers of companies have been tempted to speculate and which they have invested for their own interests rather than in the interests of the insured. As a result of the exposures made the public is learning to become more familiar with the business of insurance; it is beginning to realize that more business of surplus policies is not the best results, and that high pressure methods involving unnecessary expenses, heavy commissions and high rates of interest are elements of weakness rather than of strength. The public is learning to appreciate the wisdom of the axiom that "it is the business that pays," and that when a company, whether large or small, attempts to earn a large amount of business, necessitating heavy expenditures and other evils of high pressure methods, the percentage of surplus is increased and the returns to the insured are less satisfactory.

The companies will return to sane methods in the matter of getting business, there will be greater care and conscientiousness and a higher degree of honesty in the administration of the companies' affairs. The public will become better advised as to insurance companies and their methods of doing business, and the percentage of surplus will be increased and the returns to the insured are less satisfactory.

By having a State official who cooperates with local authorities in enforcing and enforcing legislation and disseminating information as to the causes and means of preventing fires, in which the press is expected to lend its aid, and by vigorous prosecution of those guilty of arson, the great waste of property is reduced and fire rates are correspondingly lowered.

RECENT DISCLOSURES. Recent developments in the affairs of one of the big life insurance companies of this country, which is authorized to transact business in California, have been such as to warrant some comment in this report. As a result of internal dissension in the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York, disclosures have been made as to the methods of conducting the business affairs of this institution, and particularly in the handling of the trust funds contributed by the members of the society, which have been startling in the extreme.

Investigations which have been made into the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society have led to the best advantage of the members have not only failed in the proper administration of the trust imposed upon them, but have taken advantage of their position to enrich themselves at the expense of the company. In addition to the mismanagement of the funds, it has been made to appear

FEDERAL SUPERVISION. In consequence of the agitation attendant upon the exposures recently made, the discussion as to Federal insurance supervision has recently acquired added strength. For some time past a sentiment in favor of Federal supervision of insurance, fostered largely by the insurance companies, has been developing. A decision of the Supreme Court of the United States to the effect that insurance is not a matter of interstate commerce has been a strong impediment to the ad-
